E.B.M.U.D. Has 'No Plans' To Rezone Pine Grove

School District Budget Hearing Set for Aug. 6

Approved by the county superintendent of schools' office, a proposed budget of $274,465 for 1951-52 will be acted upon August 6 by the Orinda School Board.

The monthly meeting of the board that night at Orinda Grammar School, which will start at 8, will include a public hearing on the proposed budget, which differs only slightly from the one drafted last month by the board.

If there are no serious objections, the board will adopt the budget that night and send it to Martinez, where final approval must be given by the county superintendent of schools and the Board of Supervisors.

THE $1.50 LEGAL - MAXIMUM tax rate which the local board has decided to recommend for this fiscal year must be set by the county auditor, Orinda Superintendent of Schools Joseph L. Sheaff pointed out.

Of the $274,465 total proposed budget, some $198,000 is for the operating fund, Sheaff said. Under capital outlay would come $63,470, for land and construction, and $8,065 would be in the undistributed reserve.

Sheaff said that the local board estimates that about $135,503 can be raised from local taxes this year, as against $96,624 raised in 1950-51 under a $1.19 tax rate.

ENROLLMENT FOR the coming school year at Orinda and Glorietta Schools is anticipated at 1,190. The past school year it was 994, with average daily attendance 924.

Double sessions will be necessary in the first three grades at Orinda School next fall, Sheaff said.

THE SCHOOL BOARD'S recent request that the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District take over operation and maintenance of proposed pumping facilities at the projected Washington Lane School site near Sleepy Hollow was made because the East Bay Municipal Utility District, present owner of the land, asked the school board to do so, Sheaff said. The school board request was turned down by the sewer board.

The superintendent explained that E. B. M. U. D. does not wish to set a precedent by having others than engineers operate and maintain the pumping facilities, which are planned to pump sewage over an incline to Sanitary District lines. The Washington Lane site is just outside Local Improvement District 22, in which sewer lines are now being installed.

Sheaff stressed that opening of the third grammar school by the fall of 1952 is essential.

Moraga Meadows Road Request Goes to Barkley

A request by the Moraga Meadows Association that the county accept Park Lane Drive and Meadow Lane was referred for investigation to County Road Commissioner Joseph W. Barkley by the Board of Supervisors Monday.

Barkley informed the board that he would check on Meadow Lane but that Park Lane Drive is already a county-maintained road.

The Moraga Meadows Association letter was signed by Secretary Beverly J. Winthers.

Pick Committees Of Grand Jury

Committees of the 1951-52 Contra Costa County Grand Jury are now set to function.

Selected from a panel of 30 (10 picked by each of the three Superior Court judges), the 19 grand jurors were named by Superior Judge Harold Jacoby, to whom the jury will make its report next June.

FOREMAN OF THE NEW Grand Jury is W. M. Casey of Concord. Secretary is Claude M. Stitt of Antioch.

On the body are Neill C. Cornwall of 1129 Rahara Drive, Lafayette; H. T. Lynn of 12 Woodland Road, Orinda, and Joe McCall of Concord.

Committee members are:

LAW ENFORCEMENT — L. G. Dawson, chairman; Joe McCall and William Hislop.

Highways and roads — Claude M. Stitt, chairman; Walter Bedell, W. F. Wilson.

SOCIAL WELFARE — Neill C. Cornwall, chairman; M. F. Greif, W. F. Wilson, Fritz Carlfield.

Hospital clinic — Manuel Marcos, Jr., chairman; Thomas Neary, Ernest Rossoni.

Juvenile Hall—N. P. Bush, chairman; H. T. Lynn, Warren B. Abrams, Carrol T. Gossett.

Education—Ernest Rossoni, chairman; L. G. Dawson, William Hislop.

AUDIT AND FINANCE — Duncan A. Currie, chairman; Manuel Marcos, Jr., Neill C. Cornwall.

Purchasing supplies—H. T. Lynn, chairman; M. F. Greif, Leigh H. Smith.

Agricultural — Fritz Carlfield, chairman; Warren B. Abrams, Carrol T. Gossett.

Public buildings — Joe McCall, chairman; N. P. Bush, Walter Bedell.

Rush Installing Of Sewers in 2 L.I.D. Districts

In a race against the onslaught of winter rains, completion of work on installation of sewers in Local Improvement Districts 22 and 23 is proceeding with dispatch.

Completion is scheduled for December, according to Victor Sauer, district manager of Central Contra Costa Sanitary District.

L.I.D. 22, which includes Sleepy Hollow, Sleepy Hollow Estates and portions of Haciendas Del Orinda adjacent to Miner Road, will outlet to the existing manhole in Miner Road above San Pablo Creek Road.

Four separate crews are working in Sleepy Hollow area of L.I.D. 22 in an effort to install all sewers in the street areas preparatory to repaving ahead of the remaining operations in that district.

THE NEXT STEP in this area to be undertaken by the contractor, Charles Burch Company, will be installation of the long trunk outfall in Miner Road.

Some delays in traffic will probably be unavoidable in this area, as the job is a long, slow one. Installation of sewer work in areas on both sides of Miner Road will then begin.

L.I.D. 23, LIES EASTERLY of L.I.D. 22 and northerly of Lake Cascade, and also includes units of Haciendas Del Orinda.

Installation of street sewers in order to get streets repaved before the rains is the aim here, so trenches will have an opportunity to settle properly.

Closing off some streets in the area for short intervals in order to install sewers as rapidly as possible may be necessary, it is reported. Factor in the construction job is close cooperation with the fire district in order to provide access to homes in the area.

IN ORDER TO MINIMIZE traffic problems and to cooperate with the fire department, it may be necessary in some instances to reverse the usual order of procedure and dig from the top of the street down to the main street connection.

The Sanitary District reported that as yet the contractor has given no information as to installation of side sewers to homes before final completion of the lines, but information may be forthcoming in late September.

Main efforts expended now are to complete street installations and to repave ahead of the rains.

Phone Installation Major Casualty as Pickets Parade

Telephone installations and repairs are this area's major casualty in the CIO Communication Workers of America strike against the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, it was reported today by company spokesmen.

However, pickets for the striking union appeared only one day in Walnut Creek during the first week of the strike. That was last Tuesday when the pickets patrolled the company's central office and its business office on Locust Street from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., its test center and its garage.

THE STRIKE has interrupted long distance and toll calls in and out of Walnut Creek on occasion but dial telephoning of local calls went uninterrupted, according to Howard Greenhalgh, Walnut Creek area manager for the company.

The strike began one week ago today in a wage dispute which included such fringe terms as double-time for work on Easter and Mother's Day, the company reported.

It is the phone operators who are on strike. There are no operators in Walnut Creek. Only interruption to work here has been when other union members respect the Communication Workers' picket lines.

BOTH LAFAYETTE, which comes under the Walnut Creek area office, and Orinda, which is served by the Berkeley district office of the East Bay Division, have unattended dial stations. As in Walnut Creek, there are no manual operators in these communities.

Greenhalgh said he had received reports of picketing of the Lafayette office. Likewise, Ben Maddocks, the Berkeley district office manager, stated he had no reports of any picketing at the Orinda office.

GREENHALGH SAID it was possible that installation and repair work scheduled for Lafayette had not been carried out Tuesday because of the picketing of the garage in Walnut Creek that day. Although only operators have been on strike, other unions generally have been refusing to go through picket lines.

Maddocks pointed out that the strike has had no effect on local dial calls in Orinda or on calls from Orinda to Oakland dial exchanges. Orinda to Oakland manual calls, however, have been affected by the walkout, he said, the most serious day being Wednesday, when practically all offices in the East Bay and San Francisco were picketed.

Upholstering Classes Still Have Openings

A few openings are still left in the summer upholstering classes at Acalanes Adult Center, according to George Houghton, Adult Education Program director at the high school.

Registration can be made at the school office at the beginning of each session.

Sewer District Boosts Tax Rate 17 Cents per $100

A new tax rate of 78 cents per $100 valuation, a boost of 17 cents over last year's rate, was set by the Central Contra Costa County Sanitary District at the board of director's meeting held in the district offices in Walnut Creek July 19.

A 5 PER CENT general pay raise for the board's 40 employees was also voted by directors.

The board said the tax increase was necessary to build up a reserve fund lost last year through flood damage to the treatment plant.

The hike is based on a running expense budget of $196,000 of which $140,000 is expected to be returned on the basis of 40 cents per $100 tax revenues. Remainder will be derived from fees.

THE DIRECTORS POINTED out, however, an additional 38 cents must be asked to clear up the district's bonded indebtedness of $63,000.

New Officers of Orinda Estates Elected for Year

Recently elected officers and trustees of the Orinda Estates Owners Association, to serve for the ensuing year, are:

Roy J. Beckett, president; Rudy E. Hansen, vice-president; Mrs. Theodore D. Sanford, secretary-treasurer; John B. Gilbert, Mrs. Conway Sears, S. W. Coombs and Frank C. Newman, trustees.

Election was held at the organization's meeting June 6 at Orinda Community Church.

Kendric Morrish Named Community Chest's V-P

Kendric B. Morrish will serve as a vice-president of the Oakland area Community Chest, which will be headed for the new year by Thad B. McCarty, Oakland business man.

Morrish, vice-president of the American Trust Company in the East Bay city, has served as chairman of the Chest's budget committee and as a member of the directing board.

Ask Cummings To Speed Widening Of Moraga Hwy.

With necessary deeds having been on file with the county for about two months, the Orinda Association board unanimously voted Monday night to ask Supervisor Jack Cummings to see that the county job of widening Moraga Highway near the Crossroads is performed and completed soon.

At the same time, the board voted to express appreciation to Cummings for his "interest and perseverance" in getting Moraga Highway repaved from 350 feet southeast of the Crossroads to Glorietta Boulevard.

It was also decided to ask Cummings if the county could erect and pay for "Stop for Pedestrians" signs on Moraga Highway between the Black's Market and the Sprouse-Reitz, Orinda Hardware sides, and if not, if the county would grant permission to the Orinda Association to do so.

THIS ACTION WAS taken on suggestion of Marvin Bonds, who pointed out that two recent accidents had occurred on Moraga Highway near the Crossroads.

"Some control must be effected over speeding on that street," Stanley Allen said.

Allen also brought up the old problem of the need for a street which would enable motorists going south on Moraga Highway to turn off that road and go back toward Mt. Diablo Boulevard. This "cutback" would do away with the necessity of making a U-turn on Moraga Highway.

THE MORAGA HIGHWAY widening job, promised by the county several months ago if the deeds were signed, is to be between Golden Gate Road and Camino Encinas, tapering at both ends and reaching a maximum width of about five feet in front of Orinda Hardware and Sprouse-Reitz Company.

Deeds turning over to the county strips of their sidewalk property have been filed with the county by Arthur Breed, Sr., and Don Rheem.

Cummings stated last November that when these deeds would be signed, the county would proceed with the widening job, including building a new curb.

The project is something for which the Orinda Association has been working for over a year and a half.

'Care for a Cigarette, Sheriff?' These Are Almost Fighting Words

"Have a cigarette, sheriff," sounded almost like fighting words this week following another large-scale theft of cigarettes by burglars.

The latest burglary, netting the thieves the biggest cigarette "haul" yet in the series of break-ins during recent months, occurred last weekend at the Smith and Hansen wholesale grocery warehouse in Pittsburg. Seventy-two cases, valued at $5,200 and containing 3,600 cartons, were stolen.

Possibility that the burglars were the same "Streamlined Gang" suspected of victimizing Orinda, Lafayette and Pleasant Hill food markets was hinted by Inspector Norman Wilson of the sheriff's office.

"THEY COULD BE the same burglars," Wilson said, "but we're not too sure."

The inspector pointed out that the thieves in Pittsburg limited their "job" to cigarettes. The recent series of burglaries in Central Contra Costa County has resulted in theft of cigarettes, liquor or money, or combinations of these.

LAST WEEKEND'S burglary, discovered Monday by Clarence Butterfield, manager of the warehouse, completed a geographical circle on the map of recent break-ins. A few months ago, shortly before the streamlined thefts in this area got into full swing, a Pittsburg food market was burglarized in the same methodical manner which has marked all the others.

Later, when the local incidents were setting what appeared to be a regular pattern, Inspector Wilson speculated that the thieves might be the same gang that committed the earlier Pittsburg burglary.

When it was mentioned to the inspector that the cigarette loot of last weekend was much larger than any previous "hauls," Wilson remarked, "Well, if they're after cigarettes, they'll get as much as they can."

WILSON SAID THAT the entire eruption of food market thefts was being carefully investigated. Most recent one in this general area was that of the Pleasant Hill Food Center, Pleasant Hill and Grayson Roads, July 15. Fifty cartons of cigarettes were stolen there.

Entry to the Pittsburg warehouse was gained by prying strips of corrugated iron siding loose.

Other food markets hit once or more recently include the Super Saver Market and Lafayette Food Center in Lafayette, Black's Market at Orinda Crossroads, the Orinda Store in Orinda Village and the Big Trees Grocery on Geary Road in Pleasant Hill.

Statement from EBMUD

President Louis J. Breuner of the East Bay Municipal Utility District Board of Directors stated this week that the board "at present has no intention or desire to seek rezoning" of the pine grove area at Orinda Crossroads.

"The Board of Directors of the utility district has never considered taking action on the matter of zoning of the pine grove land," Breuner told the SUN Wednesday.

"We have talked about it, but have never gone ahead.

The board president added: "I'm not promising you that that's the way it will be all the time in the future. Conditions can alter cases. But at the present time there is no intention or desire by the board to seek rezoning."

Breuner said that the utility district is now preparing information before offering for public sale any of the land in the more than 600-acre E.B.M.U.D. property in the Orinda area. Only exceptions to this, he said, are negotiations which have been going on with St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Santa Maria Catholic Church and the Orinda School District regarding possible purchase of small sites.

"We'll be glad to discuss with other similiar groups any interest they may have in small parcels," he continued. "But in general, although we have had many requests, we are not offering the land for sale until we get certain information.

"We're trying to obtain from the state a more definite picture on what the plans are for an overpass at the Crossroads, in connection with the planned freeway. We don't know just what they're going to do. The state's actions, of course, will have an important bearing on the Crossroads land picture."

Public Hearing Wednesday Night on $736,700 High School District Budget

Public hearing on the proposed $736,700 budget of the Acalanes Union High School District will be held next Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at Acalanes High School.

If adopted, the 1951-52 budget will be forwarded to the county superintendent of schools' office for final approval by it and the Board of Supervisors.

SETTING OF THE TAX rate by the county auditor will follow a resolution by the supervisors. High School District Superintendent Neil M. Parsons stated this week that the tax rate is expected to be over $1.20 per $100 assessed valuation. For the 1950-51 fiscal year the tax rate was $1.20.

However, Parsons added that it is not known just what the tax rate is likely to be, because of possible loss of $8,000,000 to Contra Costa County's tax base as the result of the State Board of Equalization's plans to assess public utility properties on the basis of 34 per cent of current market values instead of 50 per cent, as in the past.

This possible loss has been mentioned by County Assessor Justin A. Randall.

THE PROPOSED BUDGET provides $443,900 for operation of the two high schools — Acalanes and Las Lomas — and $226,000 for capital outlay.

Parsons reported that the school board recently received a letter from the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District board stating that there would be a fee for sewer service at the contemplated new high school site in Moraga Valley. The letter, however, did not say what the fee would be, according to Parsons.

THE MORAGA VALLEY land was described by Parsons as between Orinda and Moraga, about three miles south of Orinda Crossroads. It is to the west of the creek which runs parallel to Moraga Highway on the west side of the road.

It is some months since talks about this property were conducted by the school board with the owner, the Moraga Company, Parsons said, and the board itself has had no discussion about it since its last meeting.

Weather Changes To Cool Us Off

The maximum temperature for the week of July 19 through 25, 92½ degrees on the first day of that period, gave Orindans a "breather" after the 102 degree high of July 18.

Those who had resigned themselves to the advent of "hot summer" weather, were given a respite in which to apply large doses of sunburn oils and ointments to the scorched areas of their torsos.

Minimum for the week was 66 degrees recorded by the Orinda Weather Department on July 23 and 24. Remember not so long ago when 66 degrees was the HIGH temperature?

Real Estate Mart Hears Heaton

Ninety members of the Contra Costa Real Estate Mart met Monday at El Nido Rancho for their weekly breakfast session.

Guest speaker was Thomas Heaton, county planning technician, who discussed zoning in relation to real estate sales.

Rheem Company Buys Stove-Making Firm

The Rheem Manufacturing Company is purchasing controlling stock interest in the James Graham Manufacturing Company at Newark, according to G. M. Greenwood, treasurer of the Rheem firm.

Purchase price, Greenwood said, is based on the total value of the company, approximately $3,000,000. Payment is part cash and part Rheem common stock.

James Graham founded the Graham Company in 1882 on the southeast shore of San Francisco Bay, was a West Coast pioneer in the stove business and was maker of the Wedgewood line of gas ranges.

Management of the manufacture and distribution of the Wedgewood line will continue to be under Clarence Graham, Sr., son of the founder.

Orinda Association To Investigate Need for Additional Business Area

Thirty persons at a joint Orinda Association Board of Directors-Civic Affairs Committee meeting Monday night in Orinda Grammar School auditorium heard Director Kendric Morrish report that President Louis J. Breuner of the East Bay Municipal Utility District board had assured him that the E. B. M. U. D. board has not authorized a petition for rezoning of the pine grove area at the Crossroads.

On motion of Orinda Association Director Marvin Bonds, it was decided that a committee of five should:

1. — Write to the State Division of Highways for the latest plan on an overpass at the Crossroads, so as to see how the section would be changed by this development.

2.—Write to the E.B.M.U.D. board, "asking specifically if it has any plans to request rezoning of that area."

3.—Look into the possibility of a master plan being made for the Orinda area.

Bonds' motion, seconded by Director Stanley Allen, followed considerable spirited discussion, including a report of a special Orinda Chamber of Commerce board meeting earlier that day.

Chamber President Ramsay Underwood reported on a motion which had been passed at the chamber's special session and which recommended, regarding some 350 acres of Crossroads-vicinity land which E.B.M.U.D. "is understood" to be "currently offering for sale," that "at the present time no area of said property be zoned for retail business."

The chamber also recommended formation of a committee to investigate "the possibilities of and the need for" another retail business area in Orinda, asked representation on such a committee and stated it would support a move "for a well-planned additional business area proven to be necessary for the welfare of the community."

Appointed by President Kirk Miles to serve as the committee specified in Bonds' motion was the four-man Civic Affairs group which has been meeting with E.B.M.U.D. officials. In addition, Miles agreed to the naming by Civic Affairs Chairman Zach Montgomery of Stanley Allen as the fifth member.

The four original members are Montgomery, Miles, Underwood and Frank Cayting.

Morrish said that he had lunch last Friday with Breuner and G. Howard Robinson, another utility district director.

"BREUNER ASSURED ME," he stated, "that the board of E.B.M.U.D., although offering the land for sale, has never authorized a petition for rezoning.

"True, it has discussed rezoning, but it has never taken action."

Morrish declared, "There was no question in my mind but that the board of E.B.M.U.D. has no intention of seeking rezoning," described the utility district directors as "most willing to be cooperative with Orinda on that or other matters" and added, "I'm completely satisfied that there's no pressure for rezoning."

John W. McFarland, general manager, and Phil Wagner, land agent, are the two utility district officials with whom the four-man Civic Affairs group has been attempting to reach agreement, on plans for the Crossroads area.

DURING MONDAY NIGHT'S discussion, Montgomery stated, "I recall that Wagner in his official capacity never once mentioned contemplating rezoning in advance of sale."

Wagner's disclosing of E.B.M.U.D. hopes of effecting such rezoning had been reported in Orinda SUN and Oakland Tribune accounts of the June 18 Civic Affairs meeting.

Julius Rosenthal, news editor of the SUN, who was present at Monday night's meeting, declared that the newspaper reports were accurate.

Montgomery then said there might have been some misunder-

'No-Rezoning' Report Followed By Earthquake

The report that E. B. M. U. D. directors are not seeking rezoning of the pine grove area at the Crossroads really "shook the house" Monday night.

Just as Kendric Morrish closed his report with the remark, "I'm completely satisfied that there's no pressure for rezoning," the Orinda Grammar School building shook slightly and there was a rattling of objects at the walls of the auditorium.

Nothing fell down and nothing was broken. But it was, everyone present agreed, a small earthquake.

After all, wasn't it an earth-shaking report that had just been given?

Charles Hill, Sunset Village Traffic Studied

Traffic studies are being made of the Charles Hill Road-Mt. Diablo Boulevard intersection by the State Division of Highways to determine if "interim improvements" can be made in the vicinity pending construction of the freeway.

This was stated this week by District Engineer L. A. Weymouth, who explained that the studies include traffic counts and analyses.

ANOTHER TRAFFIC COUNT was taken recently at the Sunset Village Intersection of Village Center and Mt. Diablo Boulevard, but Weymouth reported that the traffic was shown to be comparatively light there.

The Sunset Village count has been referred to the Sacramento office of the division, Weymouth said.

The district engineer said that complaints from Sunset Village and Charles Hill residents had been received. The Charles Hill problem involved a heavy traffic flow, he admitted.

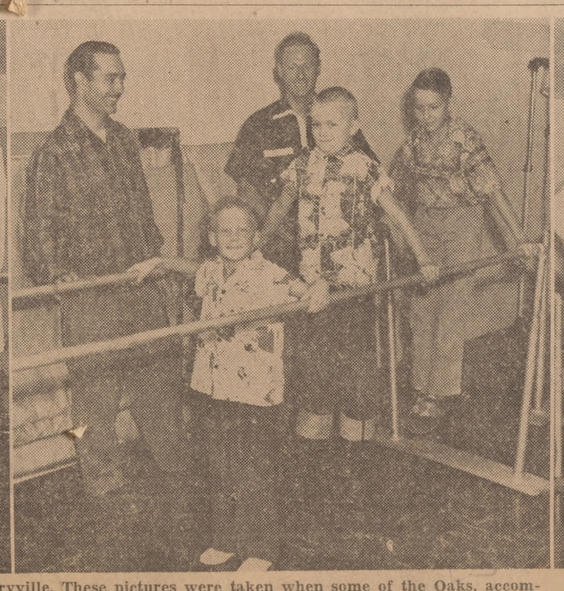

Recently the Monte Vista Improvement Association, through Thomas N. St. Hill, called attention to "the extremely hazardous condition" at the Charles Hill Road intersection.

"THE VISION AT THIS intersection is very restricted on both sides due to the curve in the highway at this point," stated the Monte Vista Association memorandum, which was offered by St. Hill to the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation.

Referring to the fact that many accidents have occurred there, St. Hill recalled that Weymouth, at a meeting with Highway Federation directors several months ago, had indicated an encouraging attitude toward early construction of a turnout lane onto Charles Hill for east-bound traffic.

Weymouth said this week that a final plan for the freeway overpass arrangement for Orinda Crossroads has not yet been selected. Clarence Fleager's "clover-leaf" plan is one of several being studied in connection with the projected overpass, he stated.

YOUNGSTERS, OAKS AND ROTARIANS at the Mt. Diablo Child Therapy Center all agree that Rotary Baseball Night next Tuesday is a great idea. The Center will benefit from the event, which is jointly sponsored by Lafayette, Orinda, Walnut Creek and Concord Rotary Clubs — and you can rest assured that the Oaks, especially after visiting the Therapy Center last week, are fired with enthusiasm to whip the Angels in the July 31 game at Oakland Ball Park in Emeryville. These pictures were taken when some of the Oaks, accompanied by Rotarians, visited the Therapy Center and talked things over with the kids. In photo at left, Wes Bailey shows four admiring lads how to hold the ball, while Johnny Jorgensen (in back) and Ray Lamanno (second from right) look on. The boys are, left to right, David Olsen, David Crenna, Jimmy Strange and Paul Enz. Physical Therapist Harry Freeman is holding Jimmy's arm. Your Garden

There's Still Lots of Time for That 2nd Crop of Vegetables in Your Garden

By BERT WRIGHT

PLENTY OF TIME remains for the second crop of vegetables in your gardens.

If plants are available, either in your own aold frame or from a local dealer, then cabbage, cauliflower, or broccoli can be planted in the space formerly occupied by early peas.

Each of these crops produces excellent quality heads during the cool weather of the fall — long after most everything else has stopped growing.

ROOT CROPS, such as beets, carrots ,radishes and rutabaga, may all be planted now to yield medium-sized, tender vegetables for fall consumption.

If you have a heavy soil that is compacted by heavy summer rains and baked by the sun, cover your beet and carrot seed with sand instead of soil. You will get much better emergence.

If spring was too late in your locality to get in a crop of June peas, you can still satisfy your appetite for fresh peas by planting early dwarf varieties late in July or early in August.

WHILE THERE IS no need to plow the soil again for these late vegetable crops, complete plant food should be broadcast and then worked in with a cultivator.

Keep an eye out for the pretty white butterflies, for they mean trouble with a capital "T" for your young cabbage, broccoli and cauliflower plants. They are the adults of the green cabbage worms.

WHEN YOU SEE the butterflies in your garden ,you may be sure that they are busily laying eggs on your plants.

Dust the plants once or twice a week because the cabbage worms will leave nothing but stalk and midribs.

Christian Science Sermon on Truth

"Truth" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 29. Citations comprising the sermon will include the following:

From the Bible: "In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me" (John 14: 2, 5, 6).

From the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "How can a Christian, having the stronger evidence of Truth which contradicts the evidence of error, think of the latter as real or true, either in the form of sickness or of sin? All must admit that Christ is 'the way, the truth, and the life,' and that omnipotent Truth certainly does destroy error" (p. 353).

If you love children — yours and your neighbors' — slow down when you drive home today.

PG&E Requests Rate Increases Of $37,650,000

Pacific Gas and Electric Company has filed application with the California Public Utilities Commission for authorization of increases in electric rates.

The increases, ranging from 15 to 21.6 per cent, would result in a boost of $37,650,000 in annual gross revenue for the company, based on 1952 operations.

Among the rate hikes for which approval is asked are a 21.6 per cent increase for domestic users, amounting to $12,959,000; 20 per cent for small light and power customers, $9,020,000; 18.5 per cent for agricultural users, $4,840,000, and 15.6 per cent for large light and power consumers, $8,125,000.

The application was filed July 18.

P. G. & E. Vice-President and General Manager N. R. Sutherland stated that the rate increases are being sought because "the company's operating costs have increased steadily and are still climbing." He added:

"Wage rates and cost of equipment are nearly double the 1940 level. Fuel costs have risen sharply, and taxes are approaching an all-time high."

Sutherland said that — except for a 6 per cent rise in February, 1950, which reversed a reduction made in 1946 — "the company's electric rates have been reduced steadily since 1923."

Exam To Be Held for Lafayette Carrier

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination to fill the position of rural carrier at Lafayette.

The examination will be held at Lafayette. Receipt of applications will close on August 2. The date of examination will be stated on admission carts mailed to applicants.

Sorry, No $1000 Expense Advance But You Can Win $1 for News Tip

We hate to disillusion you, folks, but newspaper work isn't all it's cracked up to be in the movies and on the radio. Nevertheless you can win $1 if you'll read this and act on our suggestion.

Reporters, as a rule, don't go around slam-banging their way into people's homes and offices, intimidating or cajoling them into telling the facts of news events.

Nor does a reporter generally cuss out his editor, get fired twice a month and then promptly get rehired when he reveals to the repentant boss that he has a world-shattering "scoop" which he'll bang out on the typewriter if the boss will double his old salary and toss in a $1,000 check for future expenses.

("Of course I'll do it, boy; you can have anything you want if you just give me that story; I was only kidding before, ha-ha; I always said you're the best blankety-blank noosepaperman in the country!")

As for newspaper editors (huh!), one was heard to remark recently: "When I was a kid I thought newspaper work would be fascinating because I'd meet so many interesting people. Now I'm lucky if I get to see my wife and kids oftener than once a week."

All of which is a rather long-winded way of leading up to the simple fact that newspaper reporters and editors get stories by asking questions and checking on the authenticity of information. But it helps a lot to know, first, that something has happened or is happening.

On a newspaper like the SUN, which stresses local news and which has a small staff, news "tips" from readers are extremely important. That young woman whose husband is returning from Korea — those kids who have formed a rock-study or hiking club — those trout you caught while fishing on your vacation — sure, they'd all make interesting stories in the paper.

But we can't write about them if wo don't know about them. That's why we ask you, our readers, to let us know about news events — big or little, humorous or sad, accidents or parties . . . in short, anything newsworthy.

"What about that $1?" you ask. Oh, yes . . . For the best news "tip" turned in each week, the SUN will give $1. Just tell the editor what you know about that possible story. He'll carry on from there.

How about it?

Many New Families Move to Orinda

Newcomers to adopt Orinda as their "hometown" in recent months are:

Robert Bardell and A. S. Klopf and their families, of 131 and 164 Moraga Highway, respectively; Basil L. Winslow at 31 Charles Hill Road, the Andor G. Folgar family at 325 and the Clarence Pinks at 294 Glorietta, the Robert W. Shepards and Arthur Whites of 63 Meadow View and 117 Meadow View, respectively, and the Thomas J. Smiths of 84 La Espiral.

Others who are now Orindans are the Clarence Unnevehrs of 100 Tara Road, the R. E. Pariani family of 309 Overhill Road, the Stanley Halls of 32 Las Vegas, S. B. Fiske, 300 El Toyonal: B. G. McCauley, 16 Las Piedras: Leland D. Peterson, 124 Sleepy Hollow, and the Forrest K. Moyer family of 24 Greenwood Court.

About Our Happy Country Folk

By EDITH BOLMAN

THE HOTTEST JULY 18 since 1936 was certainly a hot potato as far as some of the Happy Country Folk were concerned.

While everyone who could was cooling off in pools or bathtubs, a certain group of young ones was wearing more than its customary quota of clothing.

Peter the Wolf was being staged by Julie Edelin, Lonnie Anderson, Judy Hopkins, Diane Traverso, Sue Tharp, Diane Edelin and Judy Ageno!

The wolf himself (Julie) frightened the wits out of their bonefide dog, who made known the fact that he didn't recognize his mistress in such a getup with some snarls grunts, growls, and a few other well chosen expressions in dog language.

All of this plus a Hawaiian dance by Nancy Crum, an acrobatic Indian dance by Judy Hopkins and Brownie songs by members of Troops 31 and 28 were put on for no charge whatsoever by the children for the entertainment and edification of about 15 parents and friends.

ONE OF THE NO-HOST groups at the recent Orinda Country Club party was made up of Messrs. and Mesdames Fred Borden, R. K. Smith, Robert Jurs, Edward Merrill, John McFarland, Clinton DeWitt and John Reilly.

All of this on the heels of a house party at Lake Arrowhead where the Bordens visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shriber.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hopkins returned recently from a trip east and were mightily relieved to discover that they could reclaim their children Judy, Jerry and Kent, who were visiting in Kansas City.

The flood obliged and subsided long enough for planes to get in and out. A few days later and the young would have been standed.

WHAT EXCITEMENT! We just received a letter from the Jeltons, who arrived in Honolulu on their yacht the Minerva on the 18th of July, exactly when they said they would. To quote:

"The trip over' was a tremendous experience. Most of it was extremely pleasant, but we did have our moments with storms and rough seas. Three nights in a row the spinnaker blew into the sea, but each time was recovered, thank goodness."

And about Mrs. Jelton's galley experience: "As to my culinary efforts, the boys all gained weight on the voyage, which I presume speaks for itself (I personally dropped about 10 pounds which, ditto)."

Incidentally — not having enough boat rides, they are entering the race to Kuai an dthen in due course plan to fly home.

GOING ABOUT THINGS backwards as we do, we would like to tell you at this point how Mrs. Woodburn Lamb and daughter Freddie rode about 10 miles out to sea to watch the yachts pass the starting line.

Having gotten completely confused by Los Angeles byways and highways, they were just a wee smitch late for the departure from the dock, but were able to sardine their way onto a craft already completely overloaded, and waved goodbye to the departing voyagers.

While in Honolulu, the Jeltons will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. James P. Blaisdell, who were in Orinda recently and visited Dr. and Mrs. Jack Gompertz.

MRS. THOMAS TELFER'S mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Johnson of Columbus, Ohio, are summer visitors.

Mrs. Frank Fee and Dr. and Mrs. Clifford Johnson have been vacationing at Lake Tahoe. Mrs. Fee was visiting Mrs. Ted Beckett, so wouldn't you know — they spent most of their time trotting over various golf courses.

Mrs. Richard Karshner and baby Selby have finished their visit with parents, the Milton Selbys, and gone to Hoquium, Washington, for the rest of the summer. Come fall they will return to their home in Pullman.

Mrs. Ed Deemer of Lafayette was spending a few days at Clear Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas St. Hill took their children Jeanie, Linda, and Peter and a guest, Pat Corley, to Echo Lake for a weekend.

AND, MY GOODNESS, the things the young are up to just make our hair stand on end!

We thought that along with vacation the teen agers would be spread around on lawns and in swimming pools, but not so.

Dodie Bee and Joan Marcella skoot to San Francisco every morning for their full time jobs at the Emporium; Bill Sparling and Ross Wold are working at the Ball Canning Company; Jimmy Jacobus is in a logging camp at Willits; Gordie Hooper is in the Navy; Gwen Bowron and Joan Hedemark will soon be headed for the air stewardess training course at Cheyenne for United Air Lines; John Bowron and Lee Nelson are in Ned De Laveaga's Service Station; and Ritchie Breuner is pumping gas at Tahoe.

LOS ANGELES MAYOR Fletcher Bowron arrived recently for a quick visit with his nephew and family, the Win Bowrons of Miner Road.

Mrs. Harold Martin is spending the month of July on the Riviera with her daughter Sylvia (Mrs. Victor Henney).

Mrs. Earl Norton has left for Germany to visit her twin daughters, Jane (Mrs. James Herring) in Bonn, and Joan (Mrs. John Pebbles) in Heidelberg.

Milt Nelson's Mother Succumbs

Called to Houston, Texas, in late June because of the serious illness of his mother, Milt Nelson arrived to be there with her until her death July 6.

His brother, Al Nelson, owner of the Diner Mexicana in Richmond, was also able to make the trip to see their mother.

Funeral services were held in Houston July 7.

What Lafayette People are Doing

Wm. Fowdens Visited By Daughter-in-Law

Mrs. William Fowden returned recently from a two weeks' vacation trip to Bath, Maine, where she visited her son.

The Fowdens' daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jeanne Fowden, and her two youngsters, Barbara Jean and Mollie, are returning the visit here in Lafayette this week.

They plan to stay for a while with the junior Mrs. Fowden's parents in Santa Cruz before returning home.

At Feather River

Buddy Turner of Moraga Boulevard is visiting with friends at Challenge in the Feather River country.

Leaves for Chicago

Mrs. Jean Foss, who has been visiting her parents, the eRv and Mrs. Joel S. Peterson of Mission Covenant Church, has left for Chicago, where her husband will be attending the North Park Seminary this fall.

Motor to San Diego

The Ernie Friberg family motored to San Diego to visit relatives the past week.

At Tahoe, Yerington

Del Allison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Allison of Oak View Circle, is spending his entire vacation visiting with relatives at Lake Tahoe and in Yerington, Nevada.

Dorcy Vacation

Vacationing recently at Hotel Bel-Air in Los Angeles was Dr. L. H. Dorcy of 3415 Mt. Diablo Blvd.

Conklins Enjoy Sierra Vacation

The Lester Conklin family of Glenside Drive returned home last week from a vacation sojourn in the Sierras.

A restful stay in the Oakland Tuolumne Recreation Camp and a pack trip into the mountains around Tuolumne Meadows were enjoyed by these vacationers from Lafayette.

At Twain Harte

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lindberg and Mr. and Mrs. Irving Julius recently spent a few days at Twain Harte as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Fredericks. All live in Happy Valley Glen. The Fredericks returned to enjoy their new swimming pool.

Custer Recovering

F. W. Custer is recovering from a recent operation. He is now at home and doing well.

Mrs. Jackson Host To Junior League

More than 60 guests, Junior League members, transfers and their escorts, were guests Friday evening at cocktails and a buffet supper served at the Los Arabis Drive home of Mrs. Harry A. Jackson.

A highlight of the summer social season for those still in town, plans for the affair were in charge of Mrs. Robert Greig (Shirley Makin) and Mrs. William Hager.

TEST YOUR DRIVING SKILL FREE!

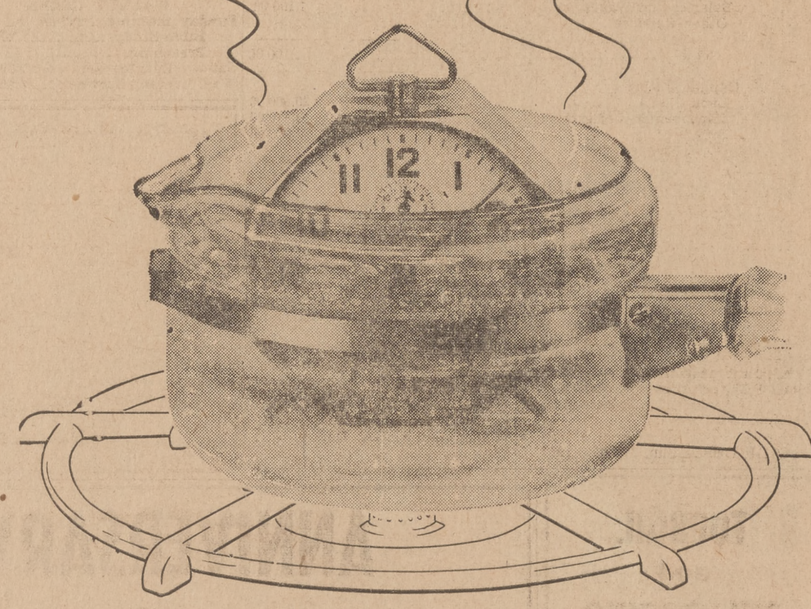

Arline Harrold, past president of the Contra Costa County Association of Insurance Agents, is presenting a driver education program at Sprouse-Reitz, Orinda Crossroads from 1 to 5 p.m. next Wednesday and Thursday, August 1 and 2.

Motorists will have the opportunity to pit their driving skill against the watchful eye of the Aetna Driverometer, a unique mechanical device, brought to California by the National Automobile Club, that records a driver's reactions to simulated driving emergencies and comes up with a printed report of his ability.

All persons over 16 whether or not they have an operator's license, will be eligible to take the one-minute examination, since the score has no effect on the driver's present or future official driving status.

$8000 Winners Will Be at Westival Gayway!

More than 8,000 prizes will go to lucky visitors at the Lafayette P-TA Westival Gayway on September 15, according to Mrs. Leslie Underhill, games and prizes chairman.

Fourteen colorful game booths will be set up in Acalanes High school physical education court by games chairmen and workers, who are being signed up now.

DADS ARE ESPECIALLY welcome, so contact Mrs. Underhill, Lafayette 4960, if you would like to help.

The games and chairmen are:

Balloon dart, Mrs. John Funk; hammer and nail, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Barante; bean bag, Mrs. Hugo Kulstad; darts, Mrs. P. W. Hovey; makeup, Mrs. Harvey Williams; Gooney Bird, M. Jellet; basket ball shot, Elmo Gulley and Bob Underhill.

Other games planned are ring toss, fish pond, suction darts, ping pong, guns, Pistol Pete, baseball throw and water bath, and Pitch and Putt.

LAFAYETTE DOCTORS are cooperating with the Westival, which will benefit the grammar schools here and the Community Center project. The doctors are raising money for the game prizes. Dr. E. C. Gerow is chairman, and $250 is set as the goal for prize money contributions.

The exciting job of picking out prizes is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Elwyn Maxey. Kenneth Jensen of the Lafayette Dime and Dollar Store, Mrs. Edward Deemer and Mrs. Leonard F. Jones are helping her.

THE COMMITTEE is planning a trip to a San Francisco wholesale house and promises to return with many of last year's popular prizes — glider and model planes, sparkling rings, key holders, sliding knives and joke prizes, and also some brand-new super-prizes!

Some come on, range riders! Try your luck at the fish pond, your skill at Pistol Pete and your muscle at the Hammer and Nail Booth.

You're sure to win at the Westival! 8,000 — count 'em — 8,000 prizes!

Class at San Quentin Taught by Rev. Berven

Every Wednesday afternoon Pastod Luther Berven of Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Lafayette is teaching a class in Christianity at San Quentin State Prison.

Pastor Berven says, "Recognizing the value of Christianity in rehabilitating a man who has broken the law, the State of California employs four full-time chaplains at its San Quentin prison, two Catholic and two Protestant.

"Pastors in the Bay Area also may help by volunteering to teach classes in religion. Attendance on the part of the inmates is entirely voluntary."

Pastor Berven To Give Sermon On 'Jesus Only'

Pastor Luther Berven of Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Lafayette tells the story of a man who met his friend on the street one day and said to him, "I hear you have given up atheism."

"Yes," replied the friend, "there's no future in it."

"But in Christianity," Pastor Berven points out, "there is not only a futuer but a present. Jesus says, 'He that believeth in me hath eternal life.'

"Eternal life, according to the Word of God, had its beginnings here and now, with heaven a continuation of this life, only in a perfected degree, for those who know Jesus Christ as heir Savior."

This Sunday morning Pastor Berven will speak on the sermon topic, "Jesus Only, Christ Alone."

The text, John 6:66-71, relates that a number of Jesus' followers, loving the world, fell away from Him. Then Jesus said to the 12, "Will you also leave me?"

Peter replied, "Lord, to whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life. And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God."

Identical services will be held at 8 and 10:45 a.m.

Just What Doctor Ordered—Hobby Wins Rollerskate Honors for Suzanne Giem

BY DORIS SAGE

A hobby — rollerskating — first suggested by her doctor in order to check for after-effects of a 1947 bout with rheumatic fever proved a boon in more ways than one this month for 10-year-old Suzanne Giem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Giem of 20 Crest View Drive, Orinda.

From the National Rollerskating Championships of the United States and Canada, held July 9 through 14 in Cleveland, Ohio, Suzanne returned home a winner of the juvenile dance competition against the cream of the skating crop from both countries. Co-winner with Suzanne was Paul Snyder, 10, of Pittsburg, her partner in the event.

Suzanne made the trip with her parents and brother, Norman, 11.

Since the Giem family had earlier wanted an activity that they could all join in, they donned skates and practiced at Rollerland in Oakland, and ultimately, since Suzanne seemed to suffer no ill effects following her illness, she began to take her rollerskating in earnest.

This year, her first year of competition, she became eligible for the National Championships through placing in the Southwestern Pacific Regionals held at Marysville in May. Those winning first, second or third places in this elimination contest are eligible to meet the top champions from both this country and our northern neighbor, Canada.

Leaving Orinda in a feverish bustle of activity July 4, the family drove through to Cleveland, arriving there in the morning three days later. Suzanne's part of the competition was held July 12, with her and her partner, matched against stiff competition, winning the honor of placing second in the finals.

With a taste of the winner's thrill and a large silver medal to spur her on, Suzanne, who goes into the fifth grade at Glorietta School this fall, will undoubtedly be in there skating when the 1952 regionals are held, possibly in Oakland.

And if she keeps on as she has, she'll appear again at the Nationals, which are scheduled for Culver City next year.

The good sportsmanship evidenced at the competition was one of the points that impressed the Orinda family. Mrs. Giem told of one incident where a boy fell during a race and one of the other boy racers finished and rushed over to help him to his feet.

Another thrill for the family during their trip was a family reunion at the home of one of Mrs. Giem's sisters in Denver. Two other sisters, one from Bakersfield and one from Missouri, were also vacationing there, to add to the pleasaure of the get-together. Final high-light was word received by one that her husband had just been promoted to the rank of major in the U. S. Army.

Norman Giem shows great promise on the wooden-wheeled skates the family uses in their Rollerland sessioins, so there are more championship possibilities in the family for next year's competition.

A trip through the tunnel to do your shopping costs you at least $2.75 in additional expenses. Shop at home for service and savings.

Sermon Announced By Rev. Peterson

Rev. Joel S. Peterson, pastor of Mission Covenant Church in Lafayette, will continue his series of sermons on the church, taking as his subject Sunday "The Witnessing Church."

"If the Church is going to fulfill her mission as a witnessing Church, every member must bear witness to the transforming power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ in their own lives," the pastor declares.

At the evening service the title of the sermon will be "Who Is A Christian?"

"One cannot be a Christian without having Christ. The new birth is the minimum essential. See John 3:3," Rev. Peterson says.

There will be special music at both services, and all are cordially invited.

Among the visitors attending the services last Sunday was a friend from Hawaii.

The Daily Vacation Bible School will meet in session for two weeks following August 13, and all classes will be held in the church schoolrooms.

It will continue through the morning hours only.

Rare flowers, banked against waterfalls and ferns, and showing the vast extent of California's floriculture industry, will form a beautiful and large Flower Show during the State Fair at Sacramento, August 30 through September 9.

Your Garden

There's Still Lots of Time for That 2nd Crop of Vegetables in Your Garden

By BERT WRIGHT

PLENTY OF TIME remains for the second crop of vegetables in your gardens.

If plants are available, either in your own aold frame or from a local dealer, then cabbage, cauliflower, or broccoli can be planted in the space formerly occupied by early peas.

Each of these crops produces excellent quality heads during the cool weather of the fall — long after most everything else has stopped growing.

ROOT CROPS, such as beets, carrots ,radishes and rutabaga, may all be planted now to yield medium-sized, tender vegetables for fall consumption.

If you have a heavy soil that is compacted by heavy summer rains and baked by the sun, cover your beet and carrot seed with sand instead of soil. You will get much better emergence.

If spring was too late in your locality to get in a crop of June peas, you can still satisfy your appetite for fresh peas by planting early dwarf varieties late in July or early in August.

WHILE THERE IS no need to plow the soil again for these late vegetable crops, complete plant food should be broadcast and then worked in with a cultivator.

Keep an eye out for the pretty white butterflies, for they mean trouble with a capital "T" for your young cabbage, broccoli and cauliflower plants. They are the adults of the green cabbage worms.

WHEN YOU SEE the butterflies in your garden you may be sure that they are busily laying eggs on your plants.

Dust the plants once or twice a week because the cabbage worms will leave nothing but stalk and midribs.

Christian Science Sermon on Truth

"Truth" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 29. Citations comprising the sermon will include the following:

From the Bible: "In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me" (John 14: 2, 5, 6).

From the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "How can a Christian, having the stronger evidence of Truth which contradicts the evidence of error, think of the latter as real or true, either in the form of sickness or of sin? All must admit that Christ is 'the way, the truth, and the life,' and that omnipotent Truth certainly does destroy error" (p. 353).

PG&E Requests Rate Increases Of $37,650,000

Pacific Gas and Electric Company has filed application with the California Public Utilities Commission for authorization of increases in electric rates.

The increases, ranging from 15 to 21.6 per cent, would result in a boost of $37,650,000 in annual gross revenue for the company, based on 1952 operations.

Among the rate hikes for which approval is asked are a 21.6 per cent increase for domestic users, amounting to $12,959,000; 20 per cent for small light and power customers, $9,020,000; 18.5 per cent for agricultural users, $4,840,000, and 15.6 per cent for large light and power consumers, $8,125,000.

The application was filed July 18.

P. G. & E. Vice-President and General Manager N. R. Sutherland stated that the rate increases are being sought because "the company's operating costs have increased steadily and are still climbing." He added:

"Wage rates and cost of equipment are nearly double the 1940 level. Fuel costs have risen sharply, and taxes are approaching an all-time high."

Sutherland said that — except for a 6 per cent rise in February, 1950, which reversed a reduction made in 1946 — "the company's electric rates have been reduced steadily since 1923."

Exam To Be Held for Lafayette Carrier

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination to fill the position of rural carrier at Lafayette.

The examination will be held at Lafayette. Receipt of applications will close on August 2. The date of examination will be stated on admission carts mailed to applicants.

Sorry, No $1000 Expense Advance But You Can Win $1 for News Tip

We hate to disillusion you, folks, but newspaper work isn't all it's cracked up to be in the movies and on the radio. Nevertheless you can win $1 if you'll read this and act on our suggestion.

Reporters, as a rule, don't go around slam-banging their way into people's homes and offices, intimidating or cajoling them into telling the facts of news events.

Nor does a reporter generally cuss out his editor, get fired twice a month and then promptly get rehired when he reveals to the repentant boss that he has a world-shattering "scoop" which he'll bang out on the typewriter if the boss will double his old salary and toss in a $1,000 check for future expenses.

("Of course I'll do it, boy; you can have anything you want if you just give me that story; I was only kidding before, ha-ha; I always said you're the best blankety-blank noosepaperman in the country!")

As for newspaper editors (huh!), one was heard to remark recently: "When I was a kid I thought newspaper work would be fascinating because I'd meet so many interesting people. Now I'm lucky if I get to see my wife and kids oftener than once a week."

All of which is a rather long-winded way of leading up to the simple fact that newspaper reporters and editors get stories by asking questions and checking on the authenticity of information. But it helps a lot to know, first, that something has happened or is happening.

On a newspaper like the SUN, which stresses local news and which has a small staff, news "tips" from readers are extremely important. That young woman whose husband is returning from Korea — those kids who have formed a rock-study or hiking club — those trout you caught while fishing on your vacation — sure, they'd all make interesting stories in the paper.

But we can't write about them if wo don't know about them. That's why we ask you, our readers, to let us know about news events — big or little, humorous or sad, accidents or parties . . . in short, anything newsworthy.

"What about that $1?" you ask. Oh, yes . . . For the best news "tip" turned in each week, the SUN will give $1. Just tell the editor what you know about that possible story. He'll carry on from there.

How about it?

Many New Families Move to Orinda

Newcomers to adopt Orinda as their "hometown" in recent months are:

Robert Bardell and A. S. Klopf and their families, of 131 and 164 Moraga Highway, respectively; Basil L. Winslow at 31 Charles Hill Road, the Andor G. Folgar family at 325 and the Clarence Pinks at 294 Glorietta, the Robert W. Shepards and Arthur Whites of 63 Meadow View and 117 Meadow View, respectively, and the Thomas J. Smiths of 84 La Espiral.

Others who are now Orindans are the Clarence Unnevehrs of 100 Tara Road, the R. E. Pariani family of 309 Overhill Road, the Stanley Halls of 32 Las Vegas, S. B. Fiske, 300 El Toyonal: B. G. McCauley, 16 Las Piedras: Leland D. Peterson, 124 Sleepy Hollow, and the Forrest K. Moyer family of 24 Greenwood Court.

Brookwood has gained the Ivan S. Sherwoods at No. 16 and the Gottfried Hesses at No. 94. Dr. D. W. Hilger is new to 31 Oakwood Road; the William W. Lincolns, 2 Kittiwake Road, the Carl Rasmussens, 140 Camino Don Miguel; A. U. Lunds, 90 Hillcrest Road; S. F. Archers, 1 Sally Ann Road; the Thorne C. Capts. Casey, Dear At Reserve Training

Captain Richard W. Casey and Captain Raymond R. Dear, both of Lafayette, recently were in two-week summer training at Fort MacArthur in Southern California with the 445th Military Government Company, organized reserve unit of the Sixth Army.

The reserve company has its headquarters at Oakland Army Base.

About Our Happy Country Folk

By EDITH BOLMAN

THE HOTTEST JULY 18 since 1936 was certainly a hot potato as far as some of the Happy Country Folk were concerned.

While everyone who could was cooling off in pools or bathtubs, a certain group of young ones was wearing more than its customary quota of clothing.

Peter the Wolf was being staged by Julie Edelin, Lonnie Anderson, Judy Hopkins, Diane Traverso, Sue Tharp, Diane Edelin and Judy Agenо!

The wolf himself (Julie) frightened the wits out of their bonefide dog, who made known the fact that he didn't recognize his mistress in such a getup with some snarls grunts, growls, and a few other well chosen expressions in dog language.

All of this plus a Hawaiian dance by Nancy Crum, an acrobatic Indian dance by Judy Hopkins and Brownie songs by members of Troops 31 and 28 were put on for no charge whatsoever by the children for the entertainment and edification of about 15 parents and friends.

ONE OF THE NO-HOST groups at the recent Orinda Country Club party was made up of Messrs. and Mesdames Fred Borden, R. K. Smith, Robert Jurs, Edward Merrill, John McFarland, Clinton DeWitt and John Reilly.

All of this on the heels of a house party at Lake Arrowhead where the Bordens visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shriber.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hopkins returned recently from a trip east and were mightily relieved to discover that they could reclaim their children Judy, Jerry and Kent, who were visiting in Kansas City.

The flood obliged and subsided long enough for planes to get in and out. A few days later and the young would have been standed.

WHAT EXCITEMENT! We just received a letter from the Jeltons, who arrived in Honolulu on their yacht the Minerva on the 18th of July, exactly when they said they would. To quote:

"The trip over was a tremendous experience. Most of it was extremely pleasant, but we did have our moments with storms and rough seas. Three nights in a row the spinnaker blew into the sea, but each time was recovered, thank goodness."

And about Mrs. Jelton's galley experience: "As to my culinary efforts, the boys all gained weight on the voyage, which I presume speaks for itself (I personally dropped about 10 pounds which, ditto)."

Incidentally — not having enough boat rides, they are entering the race to Kuai an dthen in due course plan to fly home.

GOING ABOUT THINGS backwards as we do, we would like to tell you at this point how Mrs. Woodburn Lamb and daughter Freddie rode about 10 miles out to sea to watch the yachts pass the starting line.

Having gotten completely confused by Los Angeles byways and highways, they were just a wee smitch late for the departure from the dock, but were able to sardine their way onto a craft already completely overloaded, and waved goodbye to the departing voyagers.

While in Honolulu, the Jeltons will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. James P. Blaisdell, who were in Orinda recently and visited Dr. and Mrs. Jack Gompertz.

MRS. THOMAS TELFER'S mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Johnson of Columbus, Ohio, are summer visitors.

Mrs. Frank Fee and Dr. and Mrs. Clifford Johnson have been vacationing at Lake Tahoe. Mrs. Fee was visiting Mrs. Ted Beckett, so wouldn't you know — they spent most of their time trotting over various golf courses.

Mrs. Richard Karshner and baby Selby have finished their visit with parents, the Milton Selbys, and gone to Hoquium, Washington, for the rest of the summer. Come fall they will return to their home in Pullman.

Mrs. Ed Deemer of Lafayette was spending a few days at Clear Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas St. Hill took their children Jeanie, Linda, and Peter and a guest, Pat Corley, to Echo Lake for a weekend.

AND, MY GOODNESS, the things the young are up to just make our hair stand on end!

We thought that along with vacation the teen agers would be spread around on lawns and in swimming pools, but not so.

Dodie Bee and Joan Marcella skoot to San Francisco every morning for their full time jobs at the Emporium; Bill Sparling and Ross Wold are working at the Ball Canning Company; Jimmy Jacobus is in a logging camp at Willits; Gordie Hooper is in the Navy; Gwen Bowron and Joan Hedemark will soon be headed for the air stewardess training course at Cheyenne for United Air Lines; John Bowron and Lee Nelson are in Ned De Laveaga's Service Station and Ritchie Breuner is pumping gas at Tahoe.

LOS ANGELES MAYOR Fletcher Bowron arrived recently for a quick visit with his nephew and family the Win Bowrons of Miner Road.

Mrs. Harold Martin is spending the month of July on the Riviera with her daughter Sylvia (Mrs. Victor Henney).

Mrs. Earl Norton has left for Germany to visit her twin daughters Jane (Mrs. James Herring) in Bonn and Joan (Mrs. John Pebbles) in Heidelberg.

Milt Nelson's Mother Succumbs

Called to Houston, Texas, in late June because of the serious illness of his mother, Milt Nelson arrived to be there with her until her death July 6.

His brother, Al Nelson, owner of the Diner Mexicana in Richmond, was also able to make the trip to see their mother.

Funeral services were held in Houston July 7.

TEST YOUR DRIVING SKILL FREE!

Arline Harrold, past president of the Contra Costa County Association of Insurance Agents, is presenting a driver education program at Sprouse-Reitz, Orinda Crossroads from 1 to 5 p.m. next Wednesday and Thursday, August 1 and 2.

Motorists will have the opportunity to pit their driving skill against the watchful eye of the Aetna Driverometer, a unique mechanical device, brought to California by the National Automobile Club, that records a driver's reactions to simulated driving emergencies and comes up with a printed report of his ability.

All persons over 16 whether or not they have an operator's license, will be eligible to take the one-minute examination, since the score has no effect on the driver's present or future official driving status.

8000 Winners Will Be at Westival Gayway!

More than 8,000 prizes will go to lucky visitors at the Lafayette P-TA Westival Gayway on September 15, according to Mrs. Leslie Underhill, games and prizes chairman.

Fourteen colorful game booths will be set up in Acalanes High School physical education court by games chairmen and workers, who are being signed up now.

DADS ARE ESPECIALLY welcome, so contact Mrs. Underhill, Lafayette 4960, if you would like to help.

The games and chairmen are:

Balloon dart, Mrs. John Funk; hammer and nail, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Barante; bean bag, Mrs. Hugo Kulstad; darts, Mrs. P. W. Hovey; makeup, Mrs. Harvey Williams; Gooney Bird, M. Jellet; basket ball shot, Elmo Gulley and Bob Underhill.

Other games planned are ring toss, fish pond, suction darts, ping pong, guns, Pistol Pete, baseball throw and water bath, and Pitch and Putt.

LAFAYETTE DOCTORS are cooperating with the Westival, which will benefit the grammar schools here and the Community Center project. The doctors are raising money for the game prizes. Dr. E. C. Gerow is chairman, and $250 is set as the goal for prize money contributions.

The exciting job of picking out prizes is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Elwyn Maxey. Kenneth Jensen of the Lafayette Dime and Dollar Store, Mrs. Edward Deemer and Mrs. Leonard F. Jones are helping her.

THE COMMITTEE is planning a trip to a San Francisco wholesale house and promises to return with many of last year's popular prizes — glider and model planes, sparkling rings, key holders, sliding knives and joke prizes, and also some brand-new super-prizes!

Some come on, range riders! Try your luck at the fish pond, your skill at Pistol Pete and your muscle at the Hammer and Nail Booth.

You're sure to win at the Westival! 8,000 — count 'em — 8,000 prizes!

Pastor Berven To Give Sermon On 'Jesus Only'

Pastor Luther Berven of Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Lafayette tells the story of a man who met his friend on the street one day and said to him, "I hear you have given up atheism."

"Yes," replied the friend, "there's no future in it."

"But in Christianity," Pastor Berven points out, "there is not only a futuer but a present. Jesus says, 'He that believeth in me hath eternal life.'

"Eternal life, according to the Word of God, had its beginnings here and now, with heaven a continuation of this life, only in a perfected degree, for those who know Jesus Christ as heir Savior."

This Sunday morning Pastor Berven will speak on the sermon topic, "Jesus Only, Christ Alone."

The text, John 6:66-71, relates that a number of Jesus' followers, loving the world, fell away from Him. Then Jesus said to the 12, "Will you also leave me?"

Peter replied, "Lord, to whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life. And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God."

Identical services will be held at 8 and 10:45 a.m.

Class at San Quentin Taught by Rev. Berven

Every Wednesday afternoon Pastod Luther Berven of Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Lafayette is teaching a class in Christianity at San Quentin State Prison.

Pastor Berven says, "Recognizing the value of Christianity in rehabilitating a man who has broken the law, the State of California employs four full-time chaplains at its San Quentin prison, two Catholic and two Protestant.

"Pastors in the Bay Area also may help by volunteering to teach classes in religion. Attendance on the part of the inmates is entirely voluntary."

Sermon Announced By Rev. Peterson

Rev. Joel S. Peterson, pastor of Mission Covenant Church in Lafayette, will continue his series of sermons on the church, taking as his subject Sunday "The Witnessing Church."

"If the Church is going to fulfill her mission as a witnessing Church, every member must bear witness to the transforming power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ in their own lives," the pastor declares.

At the evening service the title of the sermon will be "Who Is A Christian?"

"One cannot be a Christian without having Christ. The new birth is the minimum essential. See John 3:3," Rev. Peterson says.

There will be special music at both services, and all are cordially invited.

Among the visitors attending the services last Sunday was a friend from Hawaii.

The Daily Vacation Bible School will meet in session for two weeks following August 13, and all classes will be held in the church schoolrooms.

It will continue through the morning hours only.

Rare flowers, banked against waterfalls and ferns, and showing the vast extent of California's floriculture industry, will form a beautiful and large Flower Show during the State Fair at Sacramento, August 30 through September 9.

Just What Doctor Ordered—Hobby Wins Rollerskate Honors for Suzanne Giem

BY DORIS SAGE

A hobby — rollerskating — first suggested by her doctor in order to check for after-effects of a 1947 bout with rheumatic fever proved a boon in more ways than one this month for 10-year-old Suzanne Giem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Giem of 20 Crest View Drive, Orinda.

From the National Rollerskating Championships of the United States and Canada, held July 9 through 14 in Cleveland, Ohio, Suzanne returned home a winner of the juvenile dance competition against the cream of the skating crop from both countries. Co-winner with Suzanne was Paul Snyder, 10, of Pittsburg, her partner in the event.

Suzanne made the trip with her parents and brother, Norman, 11.

Since the Giem family had earlier wanted an activity that they could all join in, they donned skates and practiced at Rollerland in Oakland, and ultimately, since Suzanne seemed to suffer no ill effects following her illness, she began to take her rollerskating in earnest.

This year, her first year of competition, she became eligible for the National Championships through placing in the Southwestern Pacific Regionals held at Marysville in May. Those winning first, second or third places in this elimination contest are eligible to meet the top champions from both this country and our northern neighbor, Canada.

Leaving Orinda in a feverish bustle of activity July 4, the family drove through to Cleveland, arriving there in the morning three days later. Suzanne's part of the competition was held July 12, with her and her partner, matched against stiff competition, winning the honor of placing second in the finals.

With a taste of the winner's thrill and a large silver medal to spur her on, Suzanne, who goes into the fifth grade at Glorietta School this fall, will undoubtedly be in there skating when the 1952 regionals are held, possibly in Oakland.

And if she keeps on as she has, she'll appear again at the Nationals, which are scheduled for Culver City next year.

The good sportsmanship evidenced at the competition was one of the points that impressed the Orinda family. Mrs. Giem told of one incident where a boy fell during a race and one of the other boy racers finished and rushed over to help him to his feet.

Another thrill for the family during their trip was a family reunion at the home of one of Mrs. Giem's sisters in Denver. Two other sisters, one from Bakersfield and one from Missouri, were also vacationing there, to add to the pleasaure of the get-together. Final high-light was word received by one that her husband had just been promoted to the rank of major in the U. S. Army.

Norman Giem shows great promise on the wooden-wheeled skates the family uses in their Rollerland sessioins, so there are more championship possibilities in the family for next year's competition.

A trip through the tunnel to do your shopping costs you at least $2.75 in additional expenses. Shop at home for service and savings.

Vacationers --- Don't Invite Thieves, Fire

Here's hoping you enjoy your vacation.

Trout biting . . . snow clad northern peaks shimmering in beauty . . . soft southern breezes 'neath palm trees or along the Gulf . . . quaint, restful fishing villages of New England . . . the whir and cultural activity of America's big cities . . . exotic scenes in Mexico, Canada, Hawaii, South America, Europe . . .

Are you planning on one or more of these for the coming weeks? Or, perhaps, some more modest jaunt — maybe a trip to a nearby community, to visit relatives or friends?

There's one phase of preparation that's just as important as making sure everything's properly packed and the car's in good shape — taking steps to prevent, so far as possible, your home from being an inviting lure to burglars and marauders during your absence.

That precaution, as a matter of fact, is more important than many other details of getting ready for your vacation. You can buy a new skirt or pair of slacks later; you might even drive safely a good many miles before having that minor adjustment made to your car. But if your home is looted by thieves or your property is damaged, the situation cannot be rectified so easily.

Every summer in this area homes are broken into and burglarized while residents are away on vacation. Every summer pleasant vacation memories turn to gall for those local people who return home to find they have been the target of hoodlums.

So, Mr. and Mrs. About-to-be-Vacationer, enjoyment of your vacation will be enhanced and memories of your trip will remain pleasant if you follow these points of advice offered by Inspector Norman Wilson of the sheriff's office:

1. — Have deliveries of milk and newspapers halted while you are away. Don't leave empty milk bottles outside your door. An accumulation of newspapers or milk bottles is practically a public announcement saying, "Nobody's home for a spell; come right in, Mr. Burglar!"

2. — Don't leave all your blinds drawn. If you do, it will be obvious to a scheming onlooker, after a few days' observation, that the family is away.

3. — Be sure to lock all windows and doors.

4. — Before you leave, notify the sheriff's office or (in Walnut Creek) your local police department that you are going away, telling how long you will be gone and where you can be reached. Officers can then keep an eye on your property as they make their rounds.

Summer is a propitious time for fires as well as home burglaries. So that your camping or travels won't be ruined by nightmares of your residence going up in flames, and so that you won't come back to scorched or charred walls instead of to home, sweet home, you should:

1. — Disconnect all electric-wire plugs from sockets.

2. — Turn off all gas pilot-lights.

3. — Make sure that collections of rubbish or raked-up leaves, grass or weeds are not left on the grounds near your home.

With all these pre-travel guide pointers taken care of, you can go on that trip with your mind at ease.

Have a happy vacation!

Martinez Merry-Go-Round

Flood District of This Area Slated To Become Zone of Countywide Setup

Supervisors and other county officials in Martinez were not puzzled by the bill just signed by Governor Earl Warren, creating a Contra Costa Flood Control and Water Conservation District.

But the question in the minds of many people of this area is:

How does the Central Contra Costa Emergency Flood Control District fit into the picture?

SCHEDULED TO BECOME ZONE

As previously explained by Board of Supervisors Chairman Jack Cummings, the Emergency Flood Control District will become a zone of the countywide district.

But there is a more basic difference than that. The countywide district, when it becomes operative, will be mainly administrative in function. A one-cent mandatory tax per $100 assessed valuation will be levied.

Actual functioning of flood control and drainage work in any zone, such as the Central Contra Costa zone, will be financed by the area itself.

The ordinance which created the drainage district for this area limits district taxes to 12 cents per $100 assessed valuation. Out of these taxes the work in the 100,000-acre Walnut Creek watershed is to be financed.

TERMINATES JANUARY 1, 1953

That ordinance also specifies that the emergency district for this part of the county will terminate January 1, 1953.

What will happen then is apparently anybody's guess.

Assembly Bill 1152, offered by Assemblyman Robert L. Condon, was supported by the County Board of Supervisors.

It provides that county supervisors receive $24 monthly each for services in governing the countywide district. The supervisors will be assisted by an advisory board of not more than nine members.

$94,592 FEDERAL AID

This county will receive $94,592 in federal aid during the 1951-52 fiscal year under the Secondary Highways Act, the board of supervisors has been advised.

State Engineer G. T. McCoy, in a letter to the board, said the money was the first to be received under the Federal Aid Act of 1950.

ACTION URGED ON JUVENILE HALL "DEFECTS"

A report that "major defects" exist in the county's $800,000 Juvenile Hall has been referred by the Board of Supervisors to District Attorney Francis W. Collins.

That the asserted defects "should be taken care of and brought into the proper state of repair by the general contractor" is the recommendation of E. A. Lawrence, county superintendent of buildings. Deadline for holding he contractor responsible for deficiencies is early in August, Lawrence points out.

Leaky shower room floors, an improperly fastened portion of the tile roof, improperly secured storm gutters and faulty locks are listed by Lawrence as items which should be corrected.

WHEN YOUR "E" BONDS MATURE

The Treasury Department offers three choices to holders of Series E, United States Defense Bonds, when their Bonds mature:

Choices: You may: One, accept cash, if you so desire; Two, continue to hold the present bond with an automatic interest-bearing extension; Three, exchange your bonds in amounts of $500 or multiples for a Defense Bond of Series G, which earns current income at the rate of 2½ percent payable semi-annually.

Action: If you want to obtain cash, you simply present your bond, with proper identification, to any paying agent. If you want to extend the matured bond you have ABSOLUTELY NOTHING TO DO—just continue to hold it. Extended bonds may be cashed at any time you wish. If you want a G Bond, see your bank for details.

Interest: The extended bond will earn simple interest on the face amount at the rate of 2½ percent for the first seven and one-half years. Thereafter it will be at a higher rate sufficient to provide a total return for the 10-year extension period of 2.9 percent compounded.

Taxes: You have the choice of (1) reporting E Bond interest for Federal income taxes on an annual basis or (2) paying the taxes on the interest in the year when the bonds finally mature or are redeemed. The privilege of deferring taxes does not apply if the E Bond is exchanged for a G Bond.

Festival Art Show Scores Again— Los Angeles Now Beams Recognition

New recognition was bestowed today on the Walnut Festival Art Show—this time from Los Angeles.

The Department of Municipal Art in Los Angeles has requested permission to exhibit a selection of the best paintings from this year's art display at the Walnut Festival according to Show Director Guernsey Ford.

The Los Angeles request came from Kenneth Ross, department manager and one of the leading art authorities of the Pacific Coast.

At the same time Ross offered his services as a member of the Jury of Selection and will come to Walnut Creek early in September to assist in judging the paintings, Ford announced.

A FEW WEEKS AGO Ford had a request from the Seattle Art Museum for a special showing of Walnut Festival Art next January.

The Los Angeles showing is scheduled for November.

"The wide attention being received by the Walnut Festival Art Show is due in large part to the effectiveness with which numerous committees in the community have been working together to bring the best possible art to the show," Ford said.

"Our many fine art in action exhibits may be considered as second to none. With the cooperation we are getting from museums up and down the coast it seems reasonable to expect the Walnut Festival's painting exhibit this year to be the most comprehensive showing on the Pacific Coast," he added.

THIS YEAR'S ART jury for the Festival was announced by Ford as follows:

Kenneth Ross, manager of the Los Angeles Department of Municipal Art; David Park, California School of Fine Arts instructor, San Francisco; Carl Morris, president of the Artists Membership, Portland Art Museum, Portland, Oregon.

Regional jurors who will serve in their own communities without coming to Walnut Creek are:

Kenneth Callahan, Seattle Art Museum curator, and Tom Robertson, assistant director of the San Diego Fine Arts Gallery.

FORD SAID ENTRY blanks for art exhibitors have been held up pending late developments but should be in the mail about August 1.

On that same date Ford expects to have a desk set up at the Mort Brown Pontiac Sales Agency in Walnut Creek where he will be available in late afternoons and evenings for coordinating the various activities of the forthcoming Festival art show.

Exhibitors are urged to contact committee heads representing their particular interest. These committee chairmen will be:

CERAMICS—Nancy Clough, Crest Avenue, Walnut Creek.

WEAVING—Susan Campbell, Oak Grove Road, Concord.

PRINTING TECHNIQUES—Doris Clifford, 163 Orinda Highway, Orinda.

ARCHITECTURE—Floyd Comstock, 1620 Cypress Street, Walnut Creek.

JEWELRY—Bob Winston, College of Arts and Crafts, Oakland.

ALLIED CRAFTS—Dale King, the Craft Shop, Lafayette.

SCULPTURE—Alice Breuer.

CHILDREN'S ART — Ruth Howard, Walden Road, Walnut Creek.

PHOTOGRAPHY—Emma Flanders, Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek.

COMMERCIAL EXHIBITS—Virginia Lewis, Lewis and Werness, Lafayette.

8 Polio Cases In County for Year's 1st Half

Based on cases to date, polio does not yet pose a serious problem in the county this year, according to the County Health Department. Between January 1 and June 30 there were eight cases of polio reported to the County Health Department, as compared with 12 cases for the same period last year.

The age groups for this year ranged from 5 to 9 years. There is no indication of localization in any particular part of the county.

Unless the case load should go beyond that which is normally expected, there will be no change in the Health Department program.

Parents are warned, however, that during the vacation months they should guard their children against over-fatigue and overcrowding, both of which seem to contribute to the incidence of the disease.

80 Girl Scouts Return from Camp

Eighty delighted Girl Scouts returned from Sierra Woodlands, established camp, on Tuesday, with memories of a very wonderful time.

Each day greeted the scouts with something exciting in the beautiful Sierra mountains.

There were swimming, hiking, campfires, crafts and cook-outs, truly a paradise for every girl.

At the end of a strenuous day, with ravenous appetites, the girls were served such food as ham and roasts.

Girl Scouts from the seven communities in the Diablo Valley Area were represented, and the success and pleasure of these two weeks can be measured by the obvious eagerness to return to Sierra Woodlands again next year.

Reports Heard By Health Group

The Board of Directors of the Contra Costa Public Health Association, at a recent dinner meeting in Antioch, heard brief reports of this year's State and National Tuberculosis Association Conventions and the 1950 White House Conference on Children and Youth.

Mrs. R. J. Martyr of Pittsburg, vice-president of the association, presided at the meeting.

W. O. Barnes, past president of the association, attended the 1951 national annual meeting in Cincinnati. Barnes spoke of the increasing emphasis placed upon health education in tuberculosis control programs.

The role of the public health nurse in a tuberculosis case finding program was the topic of the report given by Mrs. Gladys Keyes, director of nursing, County Health Department. Mrs. Keyes was one of the local representatives at the annual state convention in Sacramento.

Helen Wolfe, director of nursing, Richmond Health Department, gave some of the highlights of the 1950 White House Conference held in Washington, D. C. which she attended as a California delegate.

The following persons were among those accepted as members of the association:

Mrs. Mabel Balensiefer, Mrs. F. S. Clough, Mrs. Olive Church, Mrs. James R. Griswold, Mrs. J. A. Hahn, Dr. Charles Hart, Mrs. A. J. Johnson, Mrs. T. W. McFarlane, Mrs. E. B. Radford, Mrs. Charles J. Schifferle, Mrs. J. T. Schroder, Mrs. Richard Stillian, Mrs. Lester Tycer and Bruce Dillman, all of Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Willis Wolf, Danville; Mrs. Jackson Calvin, Alamo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wayland Barnette, Mrs. P. D. Bowley, Mrs. C. H. Brooks, Mrs. J. Morris Browning, Mrs. Floyd Cowan, Mrs. E. M. Deemer, Mrs. W. B. Ellis, Mrs. T. V. Foster, Mrs. Leonard H. Ford, Mrs. E. C. Gerow, Dr. Dana A. Hamlin, Mrs. G. N. Jensen, Mrs. L. F. Jones, Mrs. Frank L. King, C. Fred Leffel, Dr. E. R. Ligon, Mrs. Elwin Maxey, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Nielsen, Herman Silverman, Jack F. Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Stiefvater, Mrs. Stanford White and Mrs. Don Blackwood of Lafayette.

Mrs. R. Diehl, Mrs. S. Groennings, Mrs. G. Klement, Mrs. George Matey, Mrs. E. Montgomery, Mrs. John Parker and Mrs. Margaret Winters of Orinda.

A report on the newly formed Rehabilitation Committee was given by Mrs. George Vurek.

Announcement was made of the resignation of Mrs. Lenore Crane, assistant executive secretary of the association.

Among those attending the meeting were Mrs. Robert O'Neil, Jr., Canyon; Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. Neill C. Cornwall, Lafayette; Mr. and Mrs. George Vurek, Orinda, and Mrs. Gladys Keyes, Walnut Creek.

Therapy Score? Up to You on 'Baseball Night'

After visiting Mt. Diablo Child Therapy Center last week to see what beneficial work is being done there, members of the Oaks baseball team have new incentive for making their "Rotary Night" game with the Angels next Tuesday evening a winner.

You'll want to attend this Oaks-Angels event, jointly sponsored by the Rotary Clubs of Lafayette, Orinda, Walnut Creek and Concord for the benefit of the therapy center.

Purchase your tickets through local Rotarians or the stores in the area handling them. Reserved seat tickets are available at the Greyhound bus depot in Lafayette.

Mel Nielsen, general arrangements chairman, and his corps of assistants from the four Rotary Clubs, urge you to make July 31, "Rotary Night", your night at the ball game.

Make their benefit event a success, and enjoy a fast ball game, too!

Straw Hat Revue Closes August 4

The Straw Hat Theater announces that "How Can You Miss?", its first Straw Hat Revue of the current season at Lafayette Town Hall, will close Saturday, August 4.

Reservations and tickets can be obtained by phoning Berkeley 7-6460 until 5 p. m., or Lafayette 3506 after 5:30 p. m. Tickets are also available at Richards Drug Store in Lafayette.

Music Teachers Attend Convention

Contra Costa County was represented last week in San Jose at the 41st Annual Music Teachers' Convention by Virginia Blair of Lafayette, president of the Contra Costa County Branch; Clara King Floyd, vice-president, of Sun Valley; Mr. and Mrs. George Tagg and son Jack, and Mrs. Fern Agaard , all of Walnut Creek.

More than 350 California music teachers heard outstanding artists and programs.

Among these were violinists Jo[illegible] Creighton Murray and contempo[illegible]ary English music played by Clai[illegible] James.

Three 10-year students were presented in a Certificate of Merit program, "The Telephone," opera by Gian Carlo Menotti, which was given by the Music and Arts Institute of San Francisco.

A PROGRAM WAS PRESENTED by artists from the Bach Festival in Carmel.

A recital of compositions by members of the Music Teachers' Association and a program by the Hungarian Quartet, now appearing at Mills College, added enjoyment for those attending the convention.

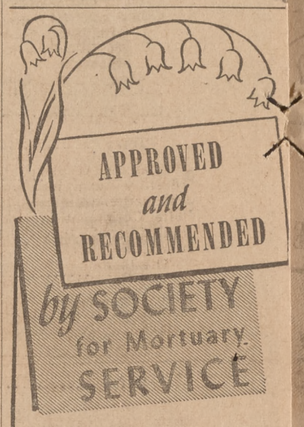

Discussion panels were held on string playing, voice and piano. Madi Bacon, head of Music Extension, University of California; Ernst von Dohnanyi, Hungarian composer and pianist; Carl Parrish, George Gruenberg and Albert Elkus, a director of the San Francisco Conservatory of Music, were among those on the panels.

EIGHTEEN MEMBERS of the California Plan—a voluntary teacher study program—received graduate degrees in Colleague-Child Specialist, Colleague or Fellows.

One of those receiving a degree was Clara King Floyd, who was presented with a degree of Child Specialist.

Four Permits for Building Issued

A definite slump in summer building activity in Orinda area over the recent holiday period was marked by issuing of only four permits for the week ending July 6.

Two residences and garages are set for construction with granting of o.k.'s. Owner and Builder Robert R. Platt, 228 Brookwood Road, applied for such construction on Lot 23, Laving Drive ad Ivy Drive, Moraga Inland Valley, with cost at $8,640.

Owner J. P. Geurin was also granted a residence-garage permit for Lot 309, Sleepy Hollow Lane and Lombardy Lane, Sleepy Hollow. Marchant and Lawrie, Inc., were listed as builders, with cost estimated at $9,600.

Installation of a storage tank at an estimated cost of $200 was o.k.'d with granting of a permit to Standard Oil Company Station at the Crossroads.

Remaining permit, for a studio, estimated cost $1,824, was issued to G. Putnam of Putnam Realty, Walnut Creek, in Hacienda Circle area. Builder was listed as William Blunck, Oakland.

Hockenbeamer's Mother Succumbs

Mrs. Æthel Fay Hockenbeamer, mother of Embree F. Hockenbeamer of 33 Dias Dorados, died suddenly at her Berkeley home recently. She was 76 and had suffered a heart attack.

Death occurred July 5. Services were conducted on the seventh by Rev. Stanley Armstrong Hunter of St. John's Presbyterian Church, Berkeley, at the Albert Brown chapel in Piedmont, followed by private graveside services July 9 at Mt. View Cemetery.

Mrs. Hockenbeamer, widow of A. F. Hockenbeeamer, former Pacific Gas and Electric Company president who died in 1935, had a summer home at Diablo, and during her stays there was active in the Danville Presbyterian Church.

Other survivors include another son, Dr. Ernest Hockenbeamer of San Jose and two granddaughters, Nancy Ann and Sandy Hockenbeamer of Orinda.

Lt. Richard Williams Wins Bars Recently

Marine 2nd Lt. Richard L. Williams, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Williams of 66 Sleepy Hollow Lane, recently won his bars following graduation from the Officer Candidate Course at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, South Carolina.

The lieutenant will now be transferred to Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, Va., where he will receive advanced training before being assigned to duty with the regular components of the Corps.

Neighborhood Youngsters Present Play

The Boyd Edelins of Valley View Drive have been host to Mr. Edelin's sisters, Nancy Lee Edelin and Mrs. Virginia Crum, and the latter's daughter, Nancy Lee Crum, for two weeks. The trio left last Sunday for their home in Washington, D. C.

Last week before the guests departed, the Edelin's two daughters, Julianne and Diane, arranged a special production of "Peter and the Wolf," presented by neighborhood youngsters who had recently taken part in the Lila Murphy dance recital number.

THOSE TROUPERS who donned the heavy costumes Wednesday of last week in spite of the 102 degree temperature, were Lonnie Anderson, Judy Hopkins, Sue Tharp, Diane Traverso, Judy Ageno, and Julianne and Diane Edelin.

The little honor guest, 10-year-old Nancy Lee Crum, did a Hawaiian dance number, Judy Hopkins presented the Fire Dance, and after these program features, Brownie troop members in the audience sang songs for the mothers.

Mrs. Edelin had invited mothers and children of the neighborhood to enjoy the program, and served refreshments to her 40 guests as grand finale of the afternoon.

Safe 'Driving' In Danger at This Free Test

A free driver education program, in which drivers can test their skill by means of the Aetna Drive-O-Meter, will be presented next Wednesday and Thursday, 1 to 5 p. m. each day, at the Sprouse-Reitz store, 64 Moraga Highway, Orinda.

Offered through the courtesy of the Contra Costa County Association of Insurance Agents, the demonstration is sponsored by Arline Harrold, Orinda agent and past president of the association.

The Drive-O-Meter is a unique mechanical device which, by automatic impulse, registers the driver's reactions and impulses and which also, at the end of the test, delivers an examination paper showing the driver's percentage.

A steering wheel, brakes and accelerator pedals are used while traffic scene similar to those viewed through a windshield are projected on a television-like screen.

Scoring by the instrument is the manner in which the driver manipulates the controls in each simulated emergency. Speed in reacting to danger, ability to distinguish colors and to estimate speed, and other good-driving requirements are determined.

Any person can take the one-minute test, whether possessing a driver's license or not. The score has no effect on a driver's present or future driving status.

The Drive - O - Meter is being brought to Orinda by the National Automobile Club and the county insurance agents' association, in collaboration with the California Highway Patrol, Department of Education, and National Safety Council.

Was Bonfire 'Put Out' by Siren?

Was that "grass fire" on Hillcrest Drive in Moraga Meadows last Friday night really a bonfire which was quickly extinguished when the fire engine siren was heard?

Assistant Fire Chief Al Winson isn't sure, but he thinks maybe that was the case.

A phone call to the station shortly after 9 p. m. sent the fire laddies out to an empty lot on Hillcrest Drive in search of a reported grass fire. But when they arrived there, there was no fire, and no one was around.

"I think that perhaps someone had a bonfire going, and put it out when they heard the siren," Winsor said.

Until the rainy season, all outdoor burning in the Orinda Fire District is prohibited except in approved incinerators.

Funeral Held for Retired Executive

Funeral services were held in Walnut Creek last Friday for Royal A. Hauer, 66, retired vice-president of the Mack Motor Corporation of 752 Hilton Road.

Mr. Hauer died at an Oakland hospital on July 18.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Agnes Hauer, and sons George W. Hauer of Orinda, Royal A. Hauer Jr. and John L. Hauer of Pasadena, in addition to 10 grandchildren.

Burial rites were directed by the Little Chapel of the Flowers, Walnut Creek.

standing, and admitted that Wagner, at a meeting with the four-man Civic Affairs group, had maps in which he showed a 30-acre business and multiple dwelling plan for the pine grove area.

However, Montgomery added, "The official thinking of the water company was not of rezoning in advance of sale."

Montgomery said that the press had not been invited to some meetings of the four-man group with Wagner because certain things were discussed "in confidence." Previously, there had been no indication that these sessions had been considered "closed."

EARLIER IN last Monday night's meeting, Cayting declared that the impression which had previously been received was that E.B.M.U.D. was interested in selling the land for business property so as to get the best price.

"I agree with you," Miles said.

Cayting asked Morrish if he thought E.B.M.U.D. would seek the most remunerative sale without trying to rezone the pine grove area for business.

"I do," replied Morrish.

Morrish added that the E.B.M.U.D. directors had expressed willingness to transfer land to a group such as a recreation district which might be formed later in Orinda, if such a district would have the funds for purchase.

BONDS POINTED OUT that the contemplated overpass at the Crossroads, plus Clarence Fleager's "clover-leaf" plan, which the state has been studying, would make the Crossroads picture "completely different" from today.

He suggested that serious thought be given to having a survey made, to be a basis for a master plan for Orinda. Such a survey, he and others pointed out, would mean grappling with the problem which was approached in 1945 by graduate students of Professor Moise of the University of California's School of Architecture.

Postmaster Laura Mallary pointed out that the study made by those students was not considered a master plan, and that Professor Moise had stressed that he was presenting the community a study on how to go about making a survey.

"We never got together after that and discussed what we wanted," she recalled.

WILLIAM PENN MOTT, JR., talked of the need for formation of a park and recreation district in the county.

Mott declared that assurance should be obtained from E.B.M.U.D. "that their policy is not going to be to disrupt the present zoning."

"As a public utility," he said, "they do not have the right to ask rezoning in order to get a higher price. That's up to the buyer, after he buys the land."

Mott added that the problem essentially resolved itself into whether Orindans wished to maintain the community as a "high-class residential area," as provided for in present zoning regulations.

"Until the freeway has been definitely set, you can't do very much about a master plan," he said. "It seems to me that our major concern shold be to see that the present zoning is not disrupted before the freeway is built."

Assistant County Planning Technician Russell Griffith was present, representing Technician Tom Heaton, who had been invited but was unable to attend.

He suggested that the Orinda Association committee meet with the County Planning Commission to discuss long-range problems.

Name Children's Art Center Officers

Members of the Orinda Children's Art Center completed their panel of officers at a meeting at the home of Mrs. J. S. Fraser, 16 Glorietta Boulevard, July 10.

Mrs. Seaver Ballard, who had been active in the group since its beginning and will be unable to hold office as anticipated this year because the family will be in Europe for the next 13 months, was honored on this occasion by a going-away shower.

Officers of the group for the 1951-52 term are:

Mrs. C. F. Borden, president; Mrs. George H. Clifford, vice-president; Mrs. R. F. Tharp, treasurer; Mrs. David Wallace, recording secretary; Mrs. William Gilmas, corresponding secretary.

Chairmen on the board are:

Mrs. J. S. Fraser, instruction; Mrs. T. M. Harrer, set-up; Mrs. Stanley Allen, supply; Mrs. Ray Devin, program; Mrs. J. J. Carlson, cleanup; Mrs. Joseph Sheaff, publicity, and Mrs. N. S. Dodge, membership.

Chit and Chat about Don and Donna

BY MARY THIES

WELL—HERE I AM again with more news about you and your friends, and other interesting happennings around Orinda.

Hey, boys (and girls, too) I've just receiyed a good tip.

Anyone wanting to earn some money (and who doesn't?) should start doing odd jobs. Believe me, it really pays off.

ELAINE RANKER recently had a luncheon followed by swimming at Acalanes. Carol Jean Earle and Christine Johnson were among the guests.

Speaking of Carol Jean Earle, she and Jackie Orving have returned from spending a few days at Columbia. I guess they had quite a time.

Tahoe as usual has attracted many Acalanes students, including Bonnie Traskowski, who spent a few days there.

SALLY FLEAGER is now in Canada. She is touring the country with her grandmother.

Carol Racing is enjoying herself up at Feather River. Tom Tilton left recently for New York.

Joanne Willits, who spent a weekend at Santa Cruz, decided that she liked it, so she returned for a longer stay of five days. I wonder how old he is!

CLEAR THE ROADS—it looks like all the Senior (next year) girls are getting their driver's licenses. Boy—is it evr mad fun!

That's all for now but remember—if you want your name in the paper I have to hear what you've been doing. You can phone me at Moraga 8887.

Hallsteds Back from Hawaii Business Trip

Clinton T. Hallsted of 141 Meadow Lane recently returned from a two-month business trip to Hawaii. He went there in his capacity as district sales manager for the American Lumber and Treating Company of Chicago. Hallsted makes such trips to the Islands two or three times a year.

Square Dance or No, Square Dancers Eat

The Sleepy Hollow Square Dancers, enthusiasm high, still continued their third Friday night potluck supper, even though the Orinda Square Dance date was postponed a week.

Host and hostess were Ernie and Marg Starkman of Irving Lane. Enjoying their hospitality were Messrs. and Mesdames C. E. Cantrill, Robert Dashiell, Joseph Downs, Channing Kilburn, Berton Kohler, Zach Montgomery, Charles Phillips, Boone Robinson, Stanley Sorem, Murray Studley, Miles Sutliffe, Harl Tyler, Godfrey Williams, William Witter, Robert Walker, Dr. and Mrs. James Seaman and Mrs. William Tyrell.

Patricia Lange At U. of Hawaii

Among the many coeds from mainland university campuses attending the summer session of the University of Hawaii is Patricia Ann Lange, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Lange of Ranch Road.

Miss Lange, who is in the islands as a member of the J. D. Howard tour, is staying at Castle Hall, Punahou School.

A senior at the University of California College of Dentistry taking a dental hygiene course, Miss Lange has enrolled in dental hygiene and English classes at the University of Hawaii.

Nicklases to Move To Land of Walnut Groves, Dairy Farms

Much to the regret of many Orinda organizations and the Orinda Community Church, the Walter S. Nicklas family will soon be leaving Orinda for their recently purchased walnut grove and home between Ripon and Manteca on Highway 28, the Oakdale route to Sonora.

Their home on Moraga Highway has been bought by Mr. and Mrs. Converse of Oakland.

The Nicklases are looking forward to life in the rural section to which they will move. It has almond and walnut groves, fruit and dairy farms and acres of sugar beets and black eye peas.

Shailer Pickton's 12th Birthday Party At Officers' Club

Shailer Pickton's birthday was quite an important night in his young life. What other gentleman of 12 would celebrate with a dinner party at the Officers' Club, Treasure Island?

Birthday wishes were sung by all present, as a large cake followed a delicious smorgasbord. Shailer is the son of Captain and Mrs. W. H. Pickton of Sleepy Hollow Lane. Captain Pickton is on the staff of the commander of the Western Sea Frontier.

Among the eight guests present were Barbara Gibbs, Michael Downs and Shailer's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford B. Shailer, visiting from Los Angeles.

Dr. James Wasley Ushers at Wedding

Dr. James Wasley served as an usher at the recent wedding of Dr. Glenn Heltne to Margor McMahon at the Federated Church of Saratoga.

The bride is the daughter of Brigadier General (retired) and Mrs. John E. McMahon, whose Saratoga home, Old Orchard, was the setting for the wedding reception.

The couple will live in Berkeley.

A trip through the tunnel to do your shopping costs you at least $2.75 in additional expenses. Shop at home for service and savings.

Mrs. Norton Sails To Europe, Will Meet 3 Daughters

Sailing from New York on the Ile de France July 17, Mrs. Earl Norton of Miner Road was scheduled to meet her three daughters when her ship docked at Le Havre.

Her trio of girls now making their homes in Germany, are Mrs. John Peebles (Joan Norton) and Mrs. James Herring (Jean Norton), the Norton twins, who reside in Heidelberg and Bonn, and their older sister, Barbara Norton Wilson, who makes her home in Frankfort.

During her stay in Europe, Mrs. Norton will take motor trips to Switzerland, Italy, Holland, Belgium, the French Riviera and Spain.

Mrs. Whetstone's Sister Visits Here

Mrs. J. P. Starr and her daughter, Jo Ann, of Proenix, Ariz., are visiting Mrs. Starr's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Whetstone and their daughter, Lynn, of 21 Meadow Park Court.

Mrs. Whetstone and Lynn recently returned from a two-month visit with Mrs. Whetstone's parents in New Jersey.

Kennedys Have Guests

Captain and Mrs. M. G. Kennedy, 59 Lost Valley Drive, have had as their guests recently Lt. Col. and Mrs. L. C. Reid and their daughter Lynn, and Ensign George L. Dial. Colonel Reid has just returned from a 10 months tour of duty in Korea and Mrs. Reid and Lynn spent that time in Millen, Georgia.

Ensign Dial is from Columbia, South Carolina. He has just received his commission in the Navy from the University of South Carolina.

Barbecue at Prays'

The Gordon Prays of Sleepy Hollow invited a few of their neighbors for a barbecue July 17 to meet their house guests, Dr. and Mrs. Stuart DeVries from Grand Rapids, Mich.

As it was one of the first balmy nights, cocktails were served on the patio to their guests, Messrs. and Mesdames Joseph Downs, Berton Kohler, Jack Rose and William Witter and Dr. and Mrs. James Seaman.

Eucalyptus-Mover Murray Groves Has Weekend at Tahoe

Murray Groves spent last weekend with two college friends in their cottage at Bijou on Lake Tahoe.

Murray is in his next to last year of his dental course.

Acquiring sunburn, stamina and hard muscles, he is spending his vacation on a logging project of the East Bay Municipal Utility District, removing eucalyptus trees from the lands bordering their San Pablo Dam Lake.

Will you be killed tomorrow? Drive very carefully.

Canyon - Today's Area and Might-Have-Been

History and legend have combined to make Canyon an area of fascination for residents as well as visitors, for ordinary people as well as scholars.

Some of the history is told in the following article, the first of a series about Canyon by Gladys Shally.

Subsequent articles, in which names of leading characters will be slightly different from what they really were, will go into further detail about the accumulation of facts and tales.

"The historical facts were obtained through research, while the tales were obtained by word of mouth," Mrs. Shally explains. "I cannot vouch for the authenticity of the tales. To go slightly poetic, in the flood of time, any story may become distorted, dates become hazy and action exaggerated. 'Time as it lengthens weaves strange illusions'."

By GLADYS SHALLY

Old Redwood Canyon is part of the Joaquin Moraga-Juan Bernal Spanish land grant, granted by Governor Juan B. Alvarado August 10, 1841.

Known as the Redwood Tract or Tract 2 of Rancho Laguna de los Palos Colorado (Lake of the Redwoods Ranch) and containing 505.18 acres, it was sold to Elam Brown and later went to Horace Carpentier.

On old maps (1875 and 1883), the canyon was called "Redwood" and the creek "Redwood Creek."

Present-day maps show this as San Leandro Canyon and San Leandro Creek.

However, when reference is made here to the area, it will be called Redwood Canyon. To present-day residents it is known as such, with the prefix "Old" to distinguish it from New Redwood Canyon, which is over the ridge and east from us.

THE ORIGINAL SURVEY of the tract of 1875, made by H. F. Boardman, U. S. surveyor, still stands today. Only one of the original survey marks — on a tree on the shore of the Upper San Leandro Reservoir — is known.

Until the high water of about 10 years ago washed out the old wooden bridge in front of the Redwood Inn, a second marker was located beneath the bridge.

Land not embraced by the survey of the Redwood tract — the end of the Canyon toward the present tunnel — was homesteaded in the 1860's. Other government lands located between the two tracts were taken up later — quite a large piece by Ike Bottomley.

ALL THE OLD BUILDINGS are gone — not a stone remains even of the foundations of the old sawmills, hotel or cabins — and there were a goodly number scattered along the floor of the Canyon.

The first of the 110 homes now occupied in Canyou was built in 1913 — the year the Sacramento Northern went through. Mule and chain dragged lumber up the steep hills to build the present-day homes.

Soon the whole north side of the canyon was marked off in lots, and there was quite a real estate boom. However, lack of water and inaccessibility brought an end to the boom, and Canyon settled down to be a peaceful little community of commuters.

Removal of railroad passenger service brought to an end another era.

TODAY IT IS STILL a commuters' area, but the people have to be made of stern stuff to drive the winding 10 miles to and from town every day.

The original postoffice was known as "Sequoyah," but was later changed to Canyon. The little one-room redwood school, built in the fall of 1918, has grown from its first graduating class of one to a two-room, three-teacher school with an attendance of over 60.

"What might have been" is the thought as one drives along old Redwood Canyon's Pinehurst Road under the tall redwoods.

Proof of what might have been is found in the measurements of the huge moss-covered stumps which are scattered over a large acreage. Near Canyon School is a stump which measured 14 feet in diameter; another is 15½ feet in diameter. These trees, if they were alive today, would be from 800 to 1,200 years old.

MANY EVEN LARGER stumps are found throughout the grove. But for puny little man's ready saw, in Canyon would have been found not only some of the tallest trees in the world, but also some of the earth's oldest living things. The Coast Redwood (Sequoia Sempervirens) attains a diameter of 18 feet and although the Sequoia Gigantea — the Big Tree of the Sierra — grows more massive, the coastal variety grows to greater height. Undoubtedly many of those of the Redwood tract reached up 300 feet. (The tallest known tree in the world is in Humboldt County — 364 feet — a Coast Redwood.)

It is regretful to think of woodsmen felling the huge old trees without a thought for their massive beauty, but it is heartening to think that each old tree lives on in the vigorous "sprouts" which now circle the mother stump and are well on their way to being 100 years old.

STANDING IN THE DAPPLED shade of the tall trees on the soft springy floor of redwood needles, it is not too hard to visualize the forest as it must have looked before the white man came to destroy its majestic splendor, when the bronzed Acalanes Indians inhabited the redwood regions as well as the lands of what is now the Moraga Valley.

The havoc wrought by the lumbermen is now grown over with ferns, trailing vines and shrubs. Deer trails criss-cross the still dimly visible logging roads, where oxen and mules labored to deliver lumber to the East Bay and surrounding counties. Madrone, oak and bay have again grown tall. A small grove of eucalyptus has replaced some of the native trees, while tangles of wild blackberry and poison oak grow wherever they can gain foothold.

One ponders — these "young" redwood trees — that started their growth before the auto was even thought of — will they be standing after the atom age has come and gone — 500-2,000 years from now?

SOME 38 YEARS AGO this picture was taken at the site where the Canyon store stands today. But the building shown here is no longer there. Most of it was an old-fashioned saloon, the entrance to which was at the front of the structure (beneath the American flags). A side entrance, at right in this photo, led to a small store where canned goods were sold. Only men were allowed to enter the front door into the saloon. The man standing in the center is George Williamson, owner of the building, and the fellow at the left (hand on hip) is his brother, Conrad Williamson. The woman is believed to be a Mrs. Rountree. The picture was taken about 1913.

Platts Entertain At Cocktail Party

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Platt recently entertained with a cocktail party, in honor of Carol Platt's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley M. Tutton, visiting from Hawaii.

Tutton returned to the Islands the next day, but Mrs. Tutton is remaining longer, sharing her time between visiting the Platts on Sleepy Hollow Lane and her parents, the Henry Christensens of Piedmont.

Among Orinda guests present at the July 5 cocktail party were Messrs. and Mesdames Alfred Otto, Donald Tibbitts, George Hall and Robert James.

Bill and Carol have just recently moved into their new home, accompanied by their three-month-old son, James Leggett Platt.

No Doldrums for Cubs of Pack 52

Summer vacation has not meant a cessation of activities for Orinda Cub Pack 52, which culminated its spring term by winning the Mt. Diablo Area Cub Pack League softball championship.

Last Saturday morning, 25 members of the pack, accompanied by eight adults, visited the Fibre-Board Products plant at Antioch. Tentative plans for a family picnic to be held late in August have been discussed by committeemen.

Informal inter-pack baseball games are being held at the Orinda School every Thursday, 7 to 8:30 p.m. All Orinda cubs have been invited to take part, according to Bob Anthonisen, publicity chairman.

Abe Rose Honored at Willows 'Stag' Party

Abe Rose, founder of the Oakland Junior Boosters Club and well-known East Bay sportsman, was honored Monday night at a "stag" party at Orinda Willows. The party was given by Bay Area sports and civic leaders.

Rose annually conducts a baseball pitching contest for Oakland youngsters.

Stork Makes It 3

Added to the list of residents in the fast-growing community of Lost Valley are the names of Dr. and Mrs. Donald M. Jonte and Diane.

Their new address is 47 Lost Valley Drive, Orinda.

Diane was born July 7 at Alta Bates Hospital.

Villierme Now Getting His Combat Training

Among Marines who are undergoing combat infantryman training at Camp Pendleton, Oceanside, is Pfc. Louis A. Villierme, 107 Camino Don Miguel.

Anniversaries — 50th, 46th, 45th

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Davis of 301 La Espiral recently entertained their old friends, with whom they had formerly attended the First Methodist Church of Oakland.

These were the Rev. and Mrs. Edgar Lowther and Messrs. and Mesdames Herman T. Brashares, Gus Leland and James Smith.

The occasion was the celebrating of the 50th wedding anniversary of the Lowthers, the 46th of the Brashares and Lelands and the 45th of the Davises.

The table was beautifully decorated with flowers and little wedding couple figurines, and featured a tiered wedding cake.

All had a very happy time reminiscing.

The Only Sure Protection

MUCH human planning, discussion, and research is given to questions of adequate defense and protection. We hear of the need for protection against disease, against old age, against enemy attack. Are we tempted to accept the need and to believe in the adequacy of material remedies? If so, we must awaken to where danger really lies, in spiritual ignorance, and learn to place our confidence where alone is sure protection — in the infinite power of God.

. . . Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 387), "The history of Christianity furnishes sublime proofs of the supporting influence and protecting power bestowed on man by his heavenly Father, omnipotent Mind, who gives man faith and understanding whereby to defend himself, not only from temptation, but from bodily suffering."

Christ Jesus consistently refused to accept the false testimony and the false remedy. He acknowledged and demonstrated God's protection and power, healing the sick and sinning. He realized that man is perfect and eternal, not mortal but immortal. He raised the dead by refusing to accept the false belief of death and exercising his understanding of eternal Life.

The Master's understanding of the infinitude of God enabled him to overcome the destructive elements of human nature which the human mind of itself is incapable of overcoming. He understood the nothingness of self-will, envy, fear, indifference, and the like. . . .

While men and nations yearn for peace and freedom, stability and security, the world seems beset by treachery, discord, sin, confusion, unrest, and greed. Yet again and again do we see defenses built on materiality fail. Only in proportion as we understand that all sure protection is of God can we overcome such enemies as fear, hypocrisy, and hatred.

We could ask for no more perfect promise of protection than that given us in the Ninety-first Psalm: "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. . . . Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence." When we come to realize that the man of God's creation dwells continually in the shelter of this unfailing power, because he cannot be separated from God, we shall cease to fear material laws of aggression and oppression. We shall give up our false beliefs of life and intelligence in matter.

All human suffering is caused by the false belief that man can be separated from God. The truth that the real man, the man of God's creating, man in His image and likeness, is spiritual and perfect and therefore cannot entertain thoughts of malice, envy, criticism, self-righteousness, and self-aggrandizement — this truth understood and acted upon would revolutionize daily living. . . .

Do we harbor thoughts of jealousy, envy, animosity, revenge? If so, we shall long in vain for peace and for a better world. But we can hasten the establishment of peace and know the indwelling joy of the consciousness of good by following Jesus' behest (Matthew 5:44, 45), "Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them that despitefully use you, and persecute you; that ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven."

Red Cross Appeals for Flood Relief Aid

From the flood devastated lands of Kansas, Missouri, Illinois and Oklahoma came an appeal this week for funds to aid an estimated 22,000 homeless families without food and clothing and in desperate need of medical attention.

Volunteer workers of the Mt. Diablo Chapter, American Red Cross, immediately set up "Appeal Booths" in Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda and throughout the Mt. Diablo Chapter's area.

THE VOLUNTEER RED Cross attendants at these booths seek your cash contribution. There will be no door-to-door or house-to-house solicitation.

A total of $5,000,000 is needed for disaster work in the flood-stricken area, Red Cross national officials announce.

The Mt. Diablo Chapter's quota has been set at a mere $770. In addition to the "Appeal Booths" set up at strategic locations in banks, stores and theaters in this area it will be possible to mail contributions to Mt. Diablo Chapter headquarters at 1607 Locust Street, Walnut Creek.

MRS. JOHN FRY of Lafayette heads the Disaster Fund drive for Mt. Diablo Chapter. Community captains include Mrs. Gladys M. Hawkins and Mrs. John Irving for Walnut Creek; Mrs. Samuel Bradbard, Pleasant Hill; Mrs. Phoebe Sears, Danville; Mrs. Phyllis Spahr, Alamo; Miss Helen Dolge, Diablo; Miss Anna Moscrop, Ygnacio Valley; Mrs. Harold Parker, Canyon and Moraga.

Lafayette and Orinda captains will be announced later.

Bloodmobile Due in Walnut Creek

It takes little time or effort to give a pint of blood. And it can mean a life to someone else.

The need is desperate right now, too.

On Wednesday, August 15, the Red Cross Bloodmobile unit will visit Walnut Creek. The service will be set up at the Walnut Creek Women's Club on Lincoln Avenue from 1 p. m. to 6:30 p. m.

New donors as well as those who have not donated blood within three months are urgently requested to make appointments by telephoning Mrs. Edward Solinsky at Walnut Creek 9053 or calling the Red Cross at Walnut Creek 5817.

Therapy Board Dinner Honors Barbara Knapp

Barbara Knapp, who has resigned her occupational therapist post at Mt. Diablo Child Therapy Center, was honored by the Board of Directors at a dinner at Planters Dock last Friday night.

Miss Knapp has accepted a position assisting Mrs. Roxie Morris at the University of Southern California in the teaching of undergraduate occupational therapy theory for physical disabilities.

She will also be faculty sponsor for the Occupational Therapy Club and will edit the student paper, Trojan Therapist.

INVITED TO THE dinner honoring Miss Knapp were:

Elizabeth Green, executive director; Harry Freeman, physical therapist; Dr. and Mrs. William Sheppard, Dr. and Mrs. Rolfe Salin, Dr. Saul Steinberg, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Vizzard, Katherine Knudsen, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edwards and daughter, and Messrs. and Mesdames David Holstrom, Marvin Bonds, Aubrey Macomber, Jack Wendt, Edward Barnette, Theodore Lassagne, Ted Druhe, Joseph Connor and Louis Kissinger.

Preceding the dinner party, all the guests were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Bonds in Orinda for cocktails.

DERALD RASMUSSEN has found it necessary to resign as president of the board of directors because of pressure of personal business.

However, he will remain on the directing board in order to give the new president, Mrs. Thomas Edwards of Diablo, any needed assistance.

Marvin Bonds, president of the board last year, has been named acting vice-president.

QQ Makes Bow With This 8-Column Edition of Sun

This issue of the SUN, in its new eight-column, full-length garb, marks the debut of Q-Q.

Q-Q has sometimes been erroneously described as a distant relative of Q-P (also spelled Kewpie), but is anything but doll-like in appearance and nature. It is a powerful Duplex Model Q-Q press recently purchased from the San Leandro Reporter.

Final installation and testing work on Q-Q has been completed — and now she's a-rolling.

Tending to confirm the theories of some that females are superior to males, Q-Q is far more efficient than her predecessor, Miehle, the flatbed press which for an unexplained reason was described as "he" by staff members. (Reason for the already accepted label of "she" for Q-Q is equally unknown.)

Q-Q can print eight of these full-size, standard pages at one time, fold and cut, all in one operation. Miehle could handle only four of our former six-column size pages at a time, and the folding and cutting had to be done on a separate machine.

Q-Q's newsprint nourishment comes from rolls, whereas Miehle's was in the form of individual flat sheets of paper, fed by hand.

Q-Q's efficiency is so thorough that readers will now look in vain for those uncut pages or those strings of paper at the edges of pages, which have sometimes perplexed them in the past.

Yes, Q-Q's quite a gal, and she hopes you like her product.

As for Miehle, his parting words to Q-Q before regretfully retiring from service with the SUN, were:

"Well, kid, keep 'em rolling . . . That's more than I could do!"

Red Cross Seeks Friendly Residents In Area To Entertain Stoneman Troops

Friendly residents of Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Pleasant Hill, Orinda, Alamo, San Ramon, Danville and Moraga are being sought out by the Mt. Diablo Area Red Cross Chapter today as hosts for Camp Stoneman's hospitalized soldiers.

Orinda has the initial bid from Red Cross to show hospitality and entertain the hospitalized boys, according to Mrs. Donn Court, chairman of a special Red Cross committee set up under the direction of Clarice Callahan, assistant Red Cross field director at Camp Stoneman.

IN TURN, MRS. COURT appointed Mrs. S. H. McAllister of Lafayette to head the area-wide program.

"The Red Cross will arrange transportation to and from Camp Stoneman and will deposit the boys at centralized points," Mrs. Court explained.

"The boys will be taken to these central points at approximately 11 a. m. on Sundays and will be picked up again at 8 p. m. the same day.

"THEIR HOSTS FOR the day will entertain them during the intervening hours, either singly or in groups at home or in conjunction with other friendly neighbors," she pointed out.

MRS. McALLISTER expressed appreciation for the enthusiasm shown by all who have been contacted about the plan to date.

Those who wish to participate in the project should contact one of the following as soon as possible:

Mrs. Court, Lafayette 2762; Mrs. Carl G. DeTar, Lafayette 2089; Mrs. McAllister, Lafayette 4630.

MRS. THEODORE BRADLEY, Orinda 8070; Mrs. A. J. Baitx, Moraga 8591; Mrs. Stanley Friden, Diablo 137-W; Mrs. William M. Hale, Diablo 31.

Mrs. J. B. Ramos, Danville 38; Mrs. Harmon Howard, Walnut Creek 5116, or the Diablo Area Red Cross, Walnut Creek 5817.

Good Walnut Crop Forecast for Area

Warning that unusually hot weather could alter conditions, Boris Todoroff, assistant manager of the Contra Costa Walnut Growers Association, forecast a bright outlook for this year's walnut crop.

Present prospects indicate a better crop this year than last, Todoroff said. Quality of this year's crop should be improved over that of last year's, which suffered burn damage during a lengthy hot spell.

This was cited as the "critical period" when hulls are hardening and are subject to burn damage from the present until harvest time begins in about a month.

157 Had Measles In Area in June

In number of cases, measles was undisputed June leader of communicable diseases in Central Contra Costa County, according to the County Health Department.

The department's tabulation for the districts in which Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda, Alamo, Danville, Clayton and Concord are included shows that there were 157 cases of measles in this part of the county last month.

In addition, there were seven cases of German measles.

Revised Budget Of $1,677,530 Approved for JC

A revised budget of $1,677,530 has been approved by the Contra Costa Junior College District board.

Proposed expenditures are:

Administration, $67,590; instruction, $851,005; auxiliary services, $25,710; operation of school plant, $116,600; maintenance of school plant, $58,850; fixed charges, $48,750.

Transportation of pupils, $11,500; food service, $4,900; capital outlay, $412,625; tuition, other districts, $5,000; undistributed reserve, $75,000.

Randall Warns of Tax Revenue Loss

County Assessor Justin A. Randall declared this week that Contra Costa County may lose $3,000,000 on its tax base if the State Board of Equalization goes ahead with plans to assess public utility properties for 1951-52 on the basis of 34 per cent of current market values.

Tentative assessment valuation of $43,000,000 for utilities within the county has been received by Randall, as against $51,000,000 the last year.

The assessor warned that the supervisors will be forced by this reduction to increase tax rates so as to cover an estimated $56,000 loss in revenue.

Randall claimed that, on the basis of new construction during the past year and on the basis of assessing at 50 per cent of market value (the state board practice in the past), assessed valuation of utilities in the county should be about $63,000,000 — a more than $10,000,000 increase over last year instead of an $8,000,000 reduction.

Officers Named for Women's Farm Group

Mrs. Paul Somerhalder has been elected chairman of the Home Department Women of the Contra Costa County committee for the California Farm Bureau.

Others named to office were Mrs. Mabel Minaker, vice-chairman; Mrs. George Fox, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Leonard Seclef, publicity chairman; Mrs. Delbert Starr, scholarship chairman; Mrs. Dante Litterno, youth assistance; Mrs. Kenneth Ferrell, health and safety; Mrs. Harry Hobbs, fairs; Mrs. Lon Thomas, education; Miss Helen Burling, summer camp, and Mrs. Thomas Plumb, 4-H representative.

Four 4-H girls had half their summer camp expenses paid by the county committee.

Quarters Sought For Area Jewish Sunday School

Steps toward formation of a Jewish Sunday School for Central Contra Costa County were taken Monday night at a meeting of the Sunday School committee of the League of Jewish Women.

Gathered at the Coast Counties Gas and Electric Company building in Walnut Creek, 15 women received advice on curriculum and teachers from Rabbi Paul M. Steinberg, director of the Hillell Foundation in Berkeley.

First major goal of the group, it was decided, is obtaining a four-room house, preferably in Walnut Creek, to be rented for use as a Sunday School.

Registration forms will be sent to interested parents within the next week or two, according to Mrs. Robert Feldman, who was elected secretary of the committee. Further information can be obtained by phoning her at Walnut Creek 5977.

It is hoped to start Sunday School classes by mid-September. Forty-seven children, ranging in age from 5 to 14, have already been listed as prospective students. More registrations are wanted, Mrs. Feldman said.

Elected chairman of the committee at the Monday night session was Mrs. Martin Manders, who had been serving as temporary chairman. Mrs. Sam Wiseman was elected treasurer.

The Sunday School committee is a cooperative parents' group. It has been set up in the League of Jewish Women to operate a Sunday School.

Counseling Services Now Available at JC

Pre-registration counseling services are available for all persons planning on entering West Contra Costa Junior College, officials point out.

Elton Brombacher, member of the J. C. board, stated that these services were being made available in order to allow each entering student a chance to properly plan his future program. Counselors are on duty this summer for consultation, Brombacher said.

Arrangements can be made by either calling BEacon 4-4573 or contacting the student personnel office in the West Campus Administration Building at the foot of Central Drive.

Will you be killed tomorrow? Drive very carefully.

Two Area Girls Win Merritt Nurse Caps

Jacqueline Swanson of Walnut Creek and Marie McMurphy of Lafayette were among 21 students of the Merritt Hospital School of Nursing to be capped at ceremonies held last Friday at the Farrelly Nurses Home adjacent to the hospital.

Successful completion of a six-month pre-clinical training period was marked by the occasion.

Mt. Diablo Dog Training Club's Free Session Will Improve Rover's Manners

By LYN McKEE

HERE'S YOUR CHANCE to learn how to teach Rover to be a well mannered, obedient, dog.

In answer to many requests, the members of the Mt. Diablo Dog Training Club will hold a training session, open to the public free of charge, at Walnut Creek City Park on Sunday, August 5, at 3 p. m.

Further classes or individual instruction will then be planned, according to the size and desire of the group.

Lesson sheets covering six sessions will be handed out, so that the trainees may work at their own speed, with home practice.

Those who plan to attend the Sunday class should bring their dogs equipped with a leash and a collar — preferably a choke-chain collar, which is standard obedience training equipment.

The instructors will be Ruth Barcelon, an Obedience Trial judge; Alva Wilkins, owner of Poco Perro Cocker Kennels, and Bruce Burchard, who raises and trains Collies at his Collie Crag home.

All three of these members have been instructors for past obedience courses sponsored by the club. They will give instruction based on the standard American Kennel Club regulations.

Anyone who has a dog he seriously wishes ot train will be welcome at the class, whether his dog is pure-bred or mongrel, one year old or 10, whether it is to be trained for show work or merely for a well-behaved house pet.

More information may be obtained by calling me at Lafayette 3230 or by calling Mrs. Joseph Clark at W. C. 4061.

THE VALLEJO DOG SHOW and Obedience Trial on July 22 had Al Wahl and Ruth Barcelon, two of our local dogsters, officiaiting in the obedience rings.

And Joe Simpson was on hand with his dog drill team, to put on one of its fine exhibitions. Margot Durney of Marney Kennels in Lafayette participated in the drill with one of her Poodles.

The Simpsons have recently taken over the Sierra Kennels, in its entirety, for the continuance of their dog training school and for boarding of dogs, as well. Joe and Verna are busy slapping paint around, and have further plans for doing a bang-up job of renovating.

BETTY AND BOB TYLER, those Sheltie-raising people over Pleasant Hill Road way, have recently completed work on their swimming pool. And everyone in dogdom seems to have heard the news.

Looks as though Sundays will be spent floating around in the Tyler pool just talking about the dog show of the day instead of going to it.

THE McKEE household has been radiating blissful peace all morning. Cat Chloe has produced again.

Late Tuesday night she gave birth to eight kittens, which must be some kind of a record for a small cat.

Dogs Shorley and Rebel are sitting side by side, gazing into the box at Chloe and offspring, and looking for all the world like a couple of doting aunties.

Our animal family is back to its usual size, once more.

Sheriff Asks for More Personnel

Referred to the Civil Service Commissioin by the Board of Supervisors this week was Sheriff James N. Long's request that he be allowed four more inspectors and that the position of sergeant be created for the sheriff's office.

Sheriff Long proposes to add four sergeants to his staff and to create the position of a chief civil deputy to assist Undersheriff Al Aljets.

The sheriff's plans call for division of the county into smaller investigative areas, thus facilitating investigations.

Under the present setup, three inspectors — Norman Wilson, Barden Carlson and Ray Stoffels — are in charge of investigations for the central, western and eastern portions of the county, respectively.

The over-all increase in personnel would be five, with the number of Grade 2 deputies reduced from the present number.

Appointments would be made through civil service promotional exams.

Tuition Claims Filed by J. C.

Tuition claims for $236,499.95 have been made against a number of counties by the Board of Trustees of the Contra Costa Junior College District. The claims are for the 1950-51 school year.

California laws provides that students residing in non-junior college districts may attend any junior college in California. However, the county superintendent of schools of the county of residence must pay for the cost of education of these students, plus $100 for each unit of average daily attendance for use of buildings.

The counties against whom claims are filed are Santa Cruz, Stanislaus, Solano, San Joaquin, Butte, Merced, Monterey, Placer, Plumas and Sacramento.

For the 1949-50 school year the non-resident tuition claims amounted to $24,935.40.

Sports Cars Will Race in Benefit

Marking an innovation in the annual California Highway Patrol Show, a benefit racing program for the widows' and orphans' fund of the California Association of Highway Patrolmen, some of the best sports cars in the country will race at Buchanan Field Airport near Concord Sunday, August 5.

The 200-mile European style Grand Prix road race will be run over a hazardous two and one-half mile course around Buchanan Field Airport.

The race will be staged by the Sports Car Club of America, an amateur organization, under the official sponsorship of the Contra Costa unit of the State Highway Patrol. Starting time is 12 noon.

Funds Received For Analysis Of X-ray Survey

Funds for a statistical analysis of the data collected on the recent chest X-ray survey are now available, according to the County Health Department.

$11,000 was donated by the Rosenberg Foundation and an additional $6,000 was alloted by the executive committee of the survey corporation.

The analysis will be in three phases:

1) Analysis of cards on persons having X-rays during the survey.

2) A comparison of these cards with 130,000 other cards on persons X-rayed in the county during the past six years.

3) An intensive study of those persons actually found to have tuberculosis.

From this study it is hoped to find out which age group or race of section of the county is particularly affected by tuberculosis; what problems we have in common with other areas and what problems are peculiar to our county, and what measures we can take in order to improve our tuberculosis control program.

It is hoped that the study will not end with a statistical analysis, but that, with the aid of additional funds from the Rosenberg Foundation, a social research study can also be undertaken.

"Through this type of study we would be able to determine why certain people were not X-rayed, why others were X-rayed, and the answers to many other questions which would be of great value to those people who will be conducting mass surveys in the future," the Health Department points out.

B'nai B'rith Picnic To Be Held Aug. 5th

B'nai B'rith, Pittsburg Lodge will have a picnic for members, their families and friends, at Castle Rock Park August 5.

An all-day affair, entertainment will include games and races, awarding of prizes, dancing, swimming, horseback riding and picnicking. Each family will take its own basket lunches.

Soldiers from Camp Stoneman are being invited and will be transported to the park. Families planning to attend are asked to bring extra food for one soldier .

Only admission charge to the picnic is the regular park entry fee. For further information, interested persons are asked to call H. Vodian, Walnut Creek 4786.

Final details were discussed at the regular B'nai B'rith Lodge meeting held at Veterans Memorial Building, Pittsburg, last night. Anyone interested in joining the organization may also contact Vodian.

Plan $1,000,000 J.C. Shop Units

Architect John C. Warnecke last week presented to the board of the Contra Costa Junior College District the preliminary plans for the permanent shop buildings at East Contra Costa Junior College, cost of construction of which is estimated at about $1,000,000.

The plans call for seven units: nternal combustion motors, building trades, metal trades, women's trades ,engineering science, electronics and industrial science.

This building will not be built for several years, but since the federal government has offered to finance the cost of planning, including architectural and engineering services ,the Board of Trustees is taking advantage of these funds in order that the planning may be done with the greatest degree of care.

The project can be built in seven different units. It is the largest single unit of any of the proposed buildings at the East Campus.

Plan Colorful Rodeo, Parade At County Fair

"Drugstore cowboys" as well as the real thing are being extended an invitation to enter the annual horse show and rodeo which will be held in conjunction with the Contra Costa County Fair, August 9-12.

Fast-bucking horses, equally as tough Brahma bulls and roping stock for the two-day rodeo on Saturday and Sunday, August 11-12, will be furnished by Andy Amsbrough from Modesto.

George H. Cardinet, Jr., fair director and general rodeo chairman from Concord, said today, "We expect plenty of entries in both the horse show and rodeo.

"Nearly all horsemen groups throughout the county will be entered."

Don E. Little, parade director for the the fair and rodeo, urged all civic and fraternal organizations to file their parade entry blanks as soon as possible in order to avoid any last-minute delay.

Sixteen trophies and several cash awards will be given for the best drum and bugle corps. Little said that every city in Contra Costa County would be represented in this year's parade.

Awards will be given in the following classifications: Sweepstakes entry, best float, best organization entry, best historical entry, best decorated car, drill teams, drum corps, best 4-H entry, best junior entry, best floral decorated entry, and seven awards for horse entries.

Mens Garden Club In Outdoor Session

More than 100 members of the Mt. Diablo Men's Garden Club are anticipated at the annual barbecue to be held at 7 o'clock Monday evening at Marsh Creek Springs Park, according to Club President George H. Conner.

San Franciscan Robert Saxe is slated as guest speaker. He will show color slides of rock gardening in the British Isles, taken during a recent trip to England and Scotland.

The barbecue supper is to be held in conjunction with the county-wide organization's regular monthly meeting.

General chairman for the event is Lloyd Smith of Martinez, secretary of the club. Other officers making arrangements for the evening are Conner, Vice-President Del Armstrong of Walnut Creek and Treasurer Talbert Taylor of Martinez.

A trip through the tunnel to do your shopping costs you at least $2.75 in additional expenses. Shop at home for service and savings.

HELPFUL HINTS

FROM MILTIE

If, after pouring a 'coustic solution down a clogged drain you still have to call the plumber, be sure to tell him of your amateur efforts. When he opens up the clogged pipe, the released water may spurt and he may be burned by the caustic unless he's been warned.

Of course plumbing has nothing to do with the furniture business so we'll just tell you some stuff about our store. We're open every day. Thursday night 'til 9 and Sunday afternoon from 1 'til 6. We have the finest Maple display in Northern California and also the largest Colonial Gift Bar in the west. We have very good decorative service for free — credit terms the same as anyone else — SO FOR GOODNESS SAKE COME IN AND SEE US SOMETIME.

Good old baking soda! What would we heavy eaters do without it? Now it turns out that a little soda sprinkled on a damp cloth and rubbed gently over the spot will remove most stains from a porcelain surface.

Diamond K Sez . . .

LAST WEEK in this column we said that these are good shopping days. Good days to shop for bargains. Last week we had clothes driers and fertilizer at bargain prices and this week we are having an other close out special.

Now at Diamond K we are closing out 6, 7 and 8 foot fan type trellises for $1. Thes trellises are made of redwoo and painted green. They ar the ideal solution for a climb ing rose at the end of the house. This week end only your choice for $1 — regard less of size. As in the case o the clothes driers, there is n delivery of close out specials

DURING THE LAST few days we have begun to get inquiries on firewood. The fire wood season is just around the corner and you might do well to order early and get the well-seasoned dry wood. We have plenty of 24 inch oak logs in stock now that have been drying all summer.

If you are contemplating doing any painting or renovating, be sure to drop in and look over the Pittsburgh Paint color cards before choosing your schemes.

That's all for this week.
